

Discussion Guide for Grades 6–8

The Revealers

Summary

Seventh-grader Russell describes Parkland Middle School (known by its student body as “Darkland”) as “an obstacle course of kids alert for someone they can go on and on ridicule.” Tired of the bullying that they experience on a daily basis, Russell and two classmates—Elliot and Catalina—start an unofficial e-mail forum at school in which they publicize their experiences. When other students write in with similar stories, it becomes clear that the problem at their school is bigger than anyone knew. The Revealers (as the forum is known) sparks awareness and begins to make a positive change in the school atmosphere, but just when the tide seems to be turning for the better, an act of revenge by a few students still bent on bullying others threatens the underground rebellion that has the whole school talking. This suspenseful story of computer-era underground rebellion offers fresh perspectives on some of the most enduring themes in fiction for young readers.

Reflection Questions for the teacher to reflect on after having presented the lesson to students. These questions may serve as prompts for discussion with colleagues or as topics for reflective journal entries. Resource Page Photocopiable handout pages that are connected to the lesson.

Producing Virtual Training, Meetings, and Webinars Kassy LaBorie, 2020-12-29 Master the Production of Virtual Events and Improve Engagement Have you ever found yourself confidently delivering content for a virtual training session, webinar or online meeting only to have a participant drop off? Or have you bravely launched breakout sessions but found that participants got lost on where to go? These scenarios illustrate the convergence of virtual session facilitation and production. While attention is most often paid to the facilitation of virtual sessions, significantly less is devoted to producing them. Producing Virtual Training, Meetings, and Webinars rectifies this gap. In this book, Kassy LaBorie, a training expert and co-author of Interact and Engage: 50 Activities for Virtual Training, Meeting and Webinars, guides you through the production knowledge and skills a trainer needs to master the production of virtual events while delivering engaging training, productive meetings and captivating webinars. From how to prepare the technology and content beforehand to how to run everything smoothly, using examples from and discussing differences among common virtual conferencing platforms such as Adobe Connect, Blackboard, Zoom, Webex, GoTo suite and Microsoft Teams, LaBorie offers a plan of action for conquering just about any platform and troubleshooting potential problems. This book thoroughly examines typical platform features: audio, webcam, chat, screen share, advanced interaction methods, polling, breakouts, Q & A and administration and logistics elements, logins, session scheduling reports. With production in mind, you'll also learn how to design session materials, prepare attendees to participate before and during the session, build successful virtual working relationships with presenters. Through stories, templates, checklists and examples, LaBorie shares about her 20-plus years of engaging participants successfully in thousands of virtual events and gets you up to speed in no time.
