Lessons For Students In Architecture:

Lessons for Students in Architecture Herman Hertzberger, 2005 Gives a broad insight into Hertzberger's library and a stimulating impression of one of the most important Dutch architects alive today Rather than supplying the reader with design recipes Hertzberger has provided an essential source of inspiration to everyone involved with the design process

Space and Learning Herman Hertzberger, 2008 As work on the book proceeded its format grew almost unobserved in the direction of two preceding books Lessons for students in architecture 1 Making space leaving space and Space and the architect Lessons in architecture 2 So Space and learning became part three of the series P 5 Lessons for Students in

Architecture Herman Hertzberger, 2001 Bewerkte compilatie van de stof behandeld in de colleges van de architect aan de Technische Universiteit Delft Lessons for Students in Architecture Herman Hertzberger, 1998 Bewerkte compilatie van de stof behandeld in de colleges van de architect aan de TU Delft

Space and the Architect Herman Hertzberger, 2010 The work of Herman Hertzberger is the subject of wide international esteem 1991 first saw publication of Hertzberger's Lessons for Students in Architecture an elaborated version of lectures he had given since 1973 at Delft University of Technology This immensely successful book has gone through many reprints and has also been published in Japanese German Italian Portuguese Taiwanese Dutch Greek Polish Iranian Korean and Chinese Space and the Architect is the second book written by Hertzberger It charts the backgrounds to his work of recent years and the ideas informing it drawing on a wide spectrum of subjects and designs by artists precursors past masters and colleagues though with his own work persistently present as a reference Space is its principal theme physical space but also the mental or intellectual regions the architect calls upon during the process of designing Once again Hertzberger's broad practical experience his ideas and his seemingly inexhaustible library of images are a major source of inspiration for anyone whose concern is the design of space 101

Things I Learned in Architecture School Matthew Frederick, 2007-08-31 Concise lessons in design drawing the creative process and presentation from the basics of How to Draw a Line to the complexities of color theory This is a book that students of architecture will want to keep in the studio and in their backpacks It is also a book they may want to keep out of view of their professors for it expresses in clear and simple language things that tend to be murky and abstruse in the classroom These 101 concise lessons in design drawing the creative process and presentation from the basics of How to Draw a Line to the complexities of color theory provide a much needed primer in architectural literacy making concrete what too often is left nebulous or open ended in the architecture curriculum Each lesson utilizes a two page format with a brief explanation and an illustration that can range from diagrammatic to whimsical The lesson on How to Draw a Line is illustrated by examples of good and bad lines a lesson on the dangers of awkward floor level changes shows the television actor Dick Van Dyke in the midst of a pratfall a discussion of the proportional differences between traditional and modern buildings features a drawing of a building split neatly in half between the two Written by an architect and instructor who remembers well the fog of his own student days 101 Things I Learned in Architecture School provides valuable guideposts for navigating the design studio and other classes in the architecture curriculum Architecture graduates from young designers to experienced practitioners will turn to the book as well for inspiration and a guide back to basics when solving a complex design problem Lessons for Students in Architecture, 1991 Lesson for Students in Architecture Herman Hertzberger, 1991 The Architect and the Academy Dean Hawkes, 2021-12-30 This book presents an expansive overview of the development of architectural and environmental research with authoritative essays spanning Dean Hawkes' impressive 50 year academic career The book considers the relationship between the technologies of the environment and wider historical and theoretical factors with chapters on topics ranging from the origins of modern building science in Renaissance England to technology and imagination in architecture It includes numerous architectural examples from renowned architects such as Christopher Wren Peter Zumthor Alvar Aalto Robert Venturi and Carlo Scarpa Aimed at students scholars and researchers in architecture and beyond this illustrated volume collates important and wide ranging essays tracing the definition scope and methodologies of architectural and environmental studies with a foreword by Susannah Hagan Processes of Creating Space Georg Rafailidis, Stephanie Davidson, 2016-05-26 Processes of Creating Space is a workbook for beginning designers that shows how to generate space with user experiences in mind It explains how to keenly perceive your world and seamlessly integrate architectural representation into your design process The book uses two main strategies blending the design process with material processes and media techniques and experiential typologies emphasising first hand experience of space Five highly experimental assignments explore the interwoven relationship between design process and design tools to help you learn when to incorporate writing architectural photography macro photography orthographic projection perspective projection hand drawing CAD mass modelling hot wire foam cutting 3D modelling multi part plaster mold making slip casting plaster casting paper casting monocoque shell structures working with latex concrete twine pulp full scale prototyping and more Illustrated with more than 350 color images the book also includes a section on material fabrication techniques and a glossary of technical terms An eResource containing downloadable essays stop motion videos sample schedules and supplementary information can be found here www.routledge.com/9781138903685 Utopias and Architecture Nathaniel Coleman, 2007-05-07 Utopian thought though commonly characterized as projecting a future without a past depends on golden models for re invention of what is Through a detailed and innovative re assessment of the work of three architects who sought to represent a utopian content in their work and a consideration of the thoughts of a range of leading writers Coleman offers the reader a unique perspective of idealism in architectural design With unparalleled depth and focus of vision on the work of Le Corbusier Louis I Kahn and Aldo van Eyck this book persuasively challenges predominant assumptions in current architectural discourse forging a new approach to the invention of welcoming built environments and transcending the limitations of both the postmodern and hyper modern stance and orthodox modernist
