Fischer, Kathleen

Making Friends With Death A Buddhist Guide To Encountering Mortality:

Making Friends with Death Judith L. Lief, 2001 Jack is having a sleepover at his friend's house. He can't wait. It's going to be the best fun ever isn't it? Making Friends with Death Judith L. Lief, 2001-02-13 Drawing from The Tibetan Book of the Dead a Buddhist teacher provides readers with the essential guidepost for embarking on the journey of life and the journey beyond. Journal of Hospice and Palliative Nursing In Making Friends with Death Buddhist teacher Judith Lief who's drawn her inspiration from The Tibetan Book of the Dead shows us that through the powerful combination of contemplation of death and mindfulness practice we can change how we relate to death, enhance our appreciation of everyday life and use our developing acceptance of our own vulnerability as a basis for opening to others. She also offers a series of guidelines to help us reconnect with dying persons whether they are friends or family, clients or patients. Lief highlights the value of relating to the immediacy of death as an ongoing aspect of everyday life by offering readers a variety of practical methods that they can apply to their lives and work. These methods include Simple mindfulness exercises for deepening awareness of moment by moment change Practices for cultivating loving kindness Helpful slogans and guidelines for caregivers to use Making Friends with Death will enlighten anyone interested in coming to terms with their own mortality. More specifically the contemplative approach presented here offers health professionals, students of death and dying and people who are helping a dying friend or relative useful guidance and inspiration. It will show them how to ground their actions in awareness and compassion so that the steps they take in dealing with pain and suffering will be more effective. The Palliative Care and Hospice Caregiver's Workbook Lura L. Pethtel, John D. Engel, 2017-11-22 This educational workbook helps people who build compassionate relationships with dying people. Accompanied by its trainer's guide, it presents a comprehensive sequential learning program for caregivers in non-medical capacities covering everything from self-understanding to spiritual issues, listening skills and expressive activities, developing the skills, awareness and resilience needed for this privileged and sensitive role. The program includes a variety of learning experiences including large and small group activities, discussion, close reading, creative writing, self-exploration and skill development and practice. This is an invaluable resource for small groups of individuals who wish to volunteer in hospice or palliative care settings. A copy of the guide for trainers is included in each pack of workbooks and is also freely available online. The best resource I have seen to guide teachers and learners in this complex training process. I predict that those of you who try it with your staffs and trainees will find that it bears fruit both for your patients and their families but also for the sustenance and personal development of the staff members themselves. Timothy Quill M.D. in his Foreword. A Physician's Guide to Pain and Symptom Management in Cancer Patients Janet L. Abrahm, 2015-01-01 This highly regarded handbook provides clinicians with the information they need to treat their cancer patients effectively and compassionately. This comprehensive guide to managing pain and other symptoms for people with cancer has helped tens of thousands of patients and families. Designed for busy practicing clinicians. A Physician's Guide to Pain and Symptom Management in Cancer Patients provides primary care physicians advanced practice nurses internists and oncologists with detailed information and advice for alleviating the stress and pain of patients and family members alike Drawing on the work of experts who have developed revolutionary approaches to symptom management and palliative care as well as on the lessons learned from patients and their families during her thirty years as a teacher and clinician Dr Janet L Abrahm shows how physicians and other caregivers can help patients and families heal emotionally even as the disease progresses The third edition includes updates to medications and clinical stories and features two new chapters Working with Patients Families and Sexuality Intimacy and Cancer New lessons from palliative care and hospice care can help patients their professional caregivers and their families support each other every step of the way

The Arts of Contemplative Care Cheryl A Giles, Willa B Miller, 2012-11-24 Powerful and life affirming this watershed volume brings together the voices of pioneers in the field of contemplative care from hospice and hospitals to colleges prisons and the military Illustrating the day to day words and actions of pastoral workers each first person essay in this collection offers a distillation of the wisdom gained over years of compassionate experience The stories told here are sure to inspire whether you are a professional caregiver or simply feel inclined toward guiding healing and comforting roles If you are inspired to read this book or even one touching story in it you just might find yourself inspired to change a life

The Death of You Miguel Chen, Rod Meade Sperry, 2019-09-17 A yoga teacher punk rock bassist and Buddhist teaches from experience on how approaching death and grief with a little more compassion and a little less fear will make for a better life and a better death too DEATH Even the word itself probably makes you a little uncomfortable Just look at it sitting there demanding to be acknowledged It might even make you a lot uncomfortable We spend so much time trying to deny death going on about our lives as if we and our loved ones are immune to it Then one day its truth becomes undeniable The Death of You doesn't flinch in looking into this vital urgent matter Join Miguel for a wild ride where we get real about death and even have a few laughs at its expense If you might someday die or if you know someone who will this book is for you If you're afraid of dying this book is for you If you're excited about the Great Unknown this book is for you In plainspoken kind and encouraging language Miguel will show you how to transform your relationship with death and in doing so you'll get to know your life in a whole new way Today is the perfect day to start Don't wait you're not gonna live forever

Radical Compassion Shambhala Publications, 2014-09-01 What is compassion Much more than just being nice compassion is about looking deeply at ourselves and others and recognizing the fundamental goodness we all share It's about opening up to the vulnerable space inside every one of us and letting our barriers down And it's about daring to be present to ourselves and others with genuine love and kindness Empowering personal awakening and social change it might be the most radical and transformative thing we can do The cultivation of compassion has long been at the core of Naropa University's mission since its origins in 1974 and its students and faculty have been leaders in contemplative education with heart In celebration of Naropa's fortieth anniversary

Shambhala Publications is pleased to offer these teachings on the path of compassion from a collection of authors who have helped shape the school's unique and innovative identity including Chogyam Trungpa on opening ourselves more and more to love the whole of humanity Dzogchen Ponlop on how to cultivate altruism with the help of a spiritual mentor Judith L. Lief on the common obstacles to compassion and how to overcome them Gaylon Ferguson on awakening human heartedness in oneself and society amidst everyday life Diane Musho Hamilton on connecting to natural empathy and taking a compassionate approach to conflict resolution Reginald A. Ray on spiritual practices for developing the enlightened mind and heart in the Mahayana Buddhist tradition Ringu Tulku on the practices of bodhisattvas those who devote themselves to the path of enlightenment for the sake of all beings Pema Chodron on building up loving kindness for oneself and others with help from traditional Buddhist slogans Ken Wilber on what it really means to be a support person with reflections from his own life Karen Kissel Wegela on avoiding caregiver's burnout and staying centered amidst our efforts to help those in need and reflections on Naropa University and the meaning of radical compassion from longstanding faculty member Judith Simmer-Brown

Imaging Life after Death Fischer, Kathleen, 2004 Drawing inspiration from science scripture poetry and relationships this book explores the meaning of life after death in a variety of traditions

Present through the End Kirsten DeLeo, 2019-08-27 A trusted companion and go to resource for everyone supporting someone at the end of life from the moment we first learn that someone is dying through the time of death and beyond Present through the End offers the guidance and essential wisdom we need when we are struggling to support someone who is nearing death This book helps us meet the many challenges ahead and navigate through difficult times with clarity and kindness both for the person who is dying and also for ourselves Inspired by decades of experience caring for the dying and years teaching contemplative care around the world Kirsten DeLeo shares down to earth advice and offers short simple on the spot tools to help us handle our emotions deal with difficult relationships talk about spiritual matters practice self care listen fully and more This book offers insight and encouragement when we are unsure what to do or say and shows us how to be present even though we may feel utterly helpless love when loss is just around the corner and be fully alive to each moment as time runs out

Earthly Immortalities Peter Moore, 2019-06-15 In this thought provoking book Peter Moore examines the often overlooked issues concerning human mortality the fragile ways in which the dead can be said to live on in earthly terms through their children their work the memories of others their possessions and even their bodies Such earthly immortalities raise a host of fascinating questions about our attitudes toward life and toward the world we leave behind us when we die To what extent does the meaning we find in our lives depend upon the assumption there will always be a new generation to continue the human adventure What would it be like if science were able to extend life indefinitely and is this something already enshrined in the doctrine of reincarnation Can we solve our anxieties about mortality by learning that life is worth living precisely because we do not live forever In a generous and eloquent account these and more are the questions Earthly Immortalities seeks to answer The Picture of Health Henri Colt, Silvia Quadrelli, Friedman Lester, 2011-05-10 Film and literature have long been mined for interesting examples and case studies in order to teach biomedical ethics to students This volume presents a collection of about 80 very brief accessible essays written by international experts from medicine social sciences and the humanities all of whom have experience using film in their teaching of medical ethics Each essay focuses on a single scene and the ethical issues it raises and the volume editors have provided strict guidelines for what each essay must do while also allowing for some creative freedom While some of the films are obvious candidates with medical themes Million Dollar Baby The Diving Bell and the Butterfly some are novel choices such as Pan's Labyrinth or As Good as It Gets The book will contain several general introductory chapters to major sections and a complete filmography and cross index at the end of the book where readers can look up individual films or ethical issues

Contemplative Caregiving John Eric Baugher, 2019-04-16 Integrating two decades of hospice care and social science research this heartfelt book offers practical lessons on the transformative possibilities of end of life caregiving Contemplative Caregiving is an indispensable guide for end of life caregivers and for anyone seeking to transform experiences of caregiving and grief Rather than leading to burnout and despair caring for those who are suffering and dying can enrich our lives with meaning and further our own spiritual growth and resilience Whether you are caring for a loved one with cancer or dementia grieving a sudden traumatic loss or even serving time in prison Contemplative Caregiving offers encouragement for showing up to the fullness of life in whatever those circumstances may be Healing compassion and spiritual growth are available to us all in this lifetime right now Baugher's unique style of integrating social scientific research on caregiving and grief with teachings from Buddhist contemplative Christian and other wisdom traditions illuminates how we each can transform experiences of loss and suffering into a path of compassion Contemplative Caregiving weaves together powerful stories from interviews with diverse hospice caregivers Vietnam veterans nurses housewives Catholic nuns those convicted of murder with the author's own journey toward wholeness in the face of grief and traumatic loss including the murder of his own mother Through rich storytelling teachings on compassion and skillful contemplative exercises Baugher invites you to join him in exploring the healing power of contemplative caregiving Essentials of Catholic Radicalism Corneliu C. Simuț, 2011 The book describes the fundamental tenets of Catholic Radicalism defined as an understanding of Christianity from a perspective which dismisses the traditional supernatural image of God The essentials of Catholic Radicalism are extracted from the works of Vito Mancuso a lay Italian theologian whose intention is to rebuild Christian theology starting from the natural and physical reality of this world Mancuso insists that he is a Catholic theologian despite his conviction that God should be seen today in atheistic terms which help us understand the world from a rational perspective The use of reason in theology is compulsory for Mancuso in order for theology to make sense in the skeptical society of our times which is characterized by a powerful lay consciousness
