The Interiors Theory Primer William Mangold, 2025-07-31 In a world where life is increasingly defined by the spaces we inhabit understanding interiors is essential to understanding ourselves The Interiors Theory Primer maps the intellectual terrain of interior design and spatial experience introducing readers to key concepts that shape how people occupy interior spaces Organized into three parts this book begins with foundational concerns such as place identity materiality and atmosphere and then examines the boundaries and expertise of the discipline before turning to critical and emerging topics like biophilia virtuality and social justice Each chapter presents a focused literature review of a major theme in interiors theory supported by key design precedents and suggestions for further reading Drawing on a wide range of scholarship The Interiors Theory Primer offers a coherent framework for understanding interiors as a distinct interdisciplinary field deeply embedded in the human condition Accessible to students useful to professionals and provocative for scholars The Interiors Theory Primer argues that the designed environments in which we live work and gather deserve greater attention not only for their aesthetic and functional qualities but also for their powerful role in shaping contemporary life

The Future of Engineering Albrecht Fritzsche, Sascha Julian Oks, 2018-07-02 In a world permeated by digital technology engineering is involved in every aspect of human life Engineers address a wider range of design problems than ever before raising new questions and challenges regarding their work as boundaries between engineering management politics education and art disappear in the face of comprehensive socio technical systems It is therefore necessary to review our understanding of engineering practice expertise and responsibility This book advances the idea that the future of engineering will not be driven by a static view of a closed discipline but rather will result from a continuous dialogue between different stakeholders involved in the design and application of technical artefacts Based on papers presented at the 2016 conference of the forum for Philosophy Engineering and Technology fPET in Nuremberg Germany the book features contributions by philosophers engineers and managers from academia and industry who discuss current and upcoming issues in engineering from a wide variety of different perspectives They cover topics such as problem solving strategies and value sensitive design experimentation and simulation engineering knowledge and education interdisciplinary collaboration sustainability risk and privacy The different contributions in combination draw a comprehensive picture of efforts worldwide to come to terms with engineering its foundations in philosophy the ethical problems it causes and its effect on the ongoing development of society

Surfaces Mike Anusas,Cristián Simonetti,2020-02-24 In attending to surfaces as they wrap layer and grow within sentient bodies material formations and cosmological states this volume presents a series of ten anthropological studies stretching across five continents and in observation of earthly practices of making knowing living and dying Through theoretically reflecting on time spent with Aymara and Mapuche Andean cultures the Malagasy people of Madagascar craftspeople and designers across Europe and Oceania amongst the architectures of Australia and South Korea and within the folds of books screens landscape and the sea the anthropologists in this volume communicate diverse ways of considering working with and knowing surfaces Together these writings advance a knowledge of the world which resists any definitive settlement of existential categories and rather seeks to know the world in its emergence and transformation as entities grow cohere shift dissolve decay and are reborn through the contact and exchange of surfaces persisting with varying time power and effect The book principally invites readers from anthropology the creative arts and environmental studies but also across the wider humanities and social sciences as well as those in neighbouring scientific fields of archaeology biology geography geoscience material science neurology and psychology interested in the intersections of mind body materials and world

ECKM 2018 19th European Conference on Knowledge Management Ettore Bolisani,Eleonora Di Maria,Enrico Scarso,2018-09-06 Detailing Worlds Eric Bellin,2025-02-06 In the 21st century the word detail appears constantly in discussions of building and we use it in many different ways yet just over 250 years ago detail meant nothing at all particular to the work of architects engineers or builders Detailing Worlds is the first book to examine the origins and evolution of detail as a concept with meanings specific to practices of building By exploring how past meanings and roles were ascribed to detail in different worlds of practice those of academics technicians students engineers and architects Detailing Worlds looks to the future illuminating the ways disciplinary knowledge and the concepts on which it is based evolve and change over time It is a story about how such concepts are slowly but constantly reconceived redefined and transformed by individuals as they interact with one another and how this process is shaped by the ever changing sociocultural and technological dimensions of the world around us Richly illustrated with more than 200 images including figures from rare texts archival student drawings and practitioners construction documents from the 18th through 20th centuries Detailing Worlds ventures to tell the history of a disciplinary specific idea and offer insights about how we think and speak about the practice of building today Unpacking IKEA Pauline Garvey,2017-11-23 This book represents the first anthropological ethnography of Ikea consumption and goes to the heart of understanding the unique and at times frantic popularity of this one iconic transnational store Based on a year of participant observation in Stockholm s Kungens Kurva store the largest in the world this book places the retailer squarely within the realm of the home building efforts of individuals in Stockholm and to a lesser degree in Dublin Ikea the world's largest retailer and one of its most interesting is the focus of intense popular fascination internationally yet is rarely subject to in depth anthropological inquiry In Unpacking Ikea Garvey explores why Ikea is never just a store for its customers and questions why it is described in terms of a cultural package as everyday and classless Using in depth interviews with householders over several years this ethnographic study follows the furniture from the Ikea store outwards to probe what people actually take home with them Visions of Culture Jerry D. Moore, 2018-11-09

Visions of Culture An Introduction to Anthropological Theories and Theorists Fifth Edition has been updated and expanded and provides a succinct clear and balanced introduction to theoretical developments in the field The key ideas of thirty major theorists are briefly described and unique to this textbook linked to the biographical and fieldwork experiences that helped shape their theories The impact of each scholar on contemporary anthropology is presented along with numerous examples quotations from the theorists writings and a description of the broader intellectual setting in which these anthropologists worked In addition to six new chapters Moore has updated all the profiles to incorporate recent scholarship The book is linked to the companion work Visions of Culture A Reader Second Edition to encourage the fullest intellectual engagement for students NEW TO THIS EDITION Part VII Neo Darwinian Evolutionary Theories 25 Eric Alden Smith Human Behavioral Ecology 26 John Tooby and Leda Cosmides The Evolved Mind 27 Robert Boyd and Peter Richerson Culture and Evolution Dual Inheritance Theory Part VIII The Ontological Turn 28 Tim Ingold An Intersubjective World 29 Philippe Descola Nature and Culture 30 Bruno Latour The Creation of Knowledge Archaeological Theory in Dialogue Rachel J. Crellin, Craig N. Cipolla, Lindsay M. Montgomery, Oliver J.T. Harris, Sophie V. Moore, 2020-11-09

Archaeological Theory in Dialogue presents an innovative conversation between five scholars from different backgrounds on a range of central issues facing archaeology today Interspersing detailed investigations of critical theoretical issues with dialogues between the authors the book interrogates the importance of four themes at the heart of much contemporary theoretical debate relations ontology posthumanism and Indigenous paradigms The authors who work in Europe and North America explore how these themes are shaping the ways that archaeologists conduct fieldwork conceptualize the past and engage with the political and ethical challenges that our discipline faces in the twenty first century The unique style of Archaeological Theory in Dialogue switching between detailed arguments and dialogical exchange makes it essential reading for both scholars and students of archaeological theory and those with an interest in the politics and ethics of the past Experiential Walks for Urban Design Barbara E. A. Piga, Daniel Siret, Jean-Paul Thibaud, 2021-08-05

The edited volume explores the topic of experiential walks which is the practice of multi or mono sensory and in motion immersion into an urban or natural environment The act of walking is hence intended as a process of re-discovering reflecting and learning through an embodied experience Specific attention is devoted to the investigation of the ambiance of places and its dynamic atmospheric perception that contribute to generating the social experience This topic is gaining increasing attention and has been studied in several forms in different disciplines to investigate the particular spatial social sensory and atmospheric character of places The book contains chapters by experts in the field and covers both the theory and the practice of innovative methods techniques and technologies It examines experiential walks in the perspective of an interdisciplinary approach to environmental and sensory urban design by organising the contributions according to three specific interrelated focuses namely the exploration and investigation of the multisensory dimension of public spaces the different ways to grasp and communicate the in motion experience through traditional and novel forms of representation and the application of the approach to urban participatory planning and higher education Shedding new light on the topic the book offers both a reference guide for those engaged in applied research and a toolkit for professionals and students

Knowing from the Inside Tim Ingold, 2022-02-24 Knowledge comes from thinking with from and through things not just about them We get to know the world around us from the inside of our being in it Drawing on the fields of anthropology art architecture and education this book addresses what knowing from the inside means for practices of teaching and learning If knowledge is not transmitted ready made independently of its application in the world but grows from the crucible of our engagements with people places and materials then how can there be such a thing as a curriculum What forms could it take And what could it mean to place such disciplines as anthropology art and architecture at the heart of the curriculum rather than as at present on the margins In addressing these questions the fifteen distinguished contributors to this volume challenge mainstream thinking about education and the curriculum and suggest experimental ways to overcome the stultifying effects of current pedagogic practice

The Contested Territory of Architectural Theory Elie G. Haddad, 2022-10-21 This book brings together a diverse group of theoreticians to explore architectural theory as a discipline assessing its condition and relevance to contemporary practice Offering critical assessment in the face of major social and environmental issues of today 17 original contributions address the relevance of architectural theory in the contemporary world from various perspectives including but not limited to politics gender representation race environmental crisis and history The chapters are grouped into two distinct sections the first section explores various historical perspectives on architectural theory mapping theory's historiographical turn and its emergence and decline from the 1960s to the present the second offers alternative visions and new directions for architectural theory incorporating feminist and human rights perspectives and addressing contemporary issues such as Artificial Intelligence and the Age of Acceleration This edited collection features contributions from renowned scholars as well as emergent voices with a Foreword by David Leatherbarrow This book will be of great interest to graduate and upper level students of architecture as well as academics and practicing architects

Ambiance, Tourism and the City Iñigo Sánchez-Fuarros, Daniel Paiva, Daniel Malet Calvo, 2023-04-28 Ambiance Tourism and the City considers how tourism and urban development affect the lived ambiances of contemporary cities around the world As most of the existing literature on sensory atmospheres says little about the intersection between tourism and atmospheric production this book affirms the centrality of the notion of ambiance as a mode of inquiry into the making and remaking of urban places for tourist consumption The book takes the reader into the sensory worlds of a traditional Italian marketplace a jungle park in Kuala Lumpur a slum in the Colombian city of Medell n or the sun and sand tourism destinations in Southern Spain among other case studies It offers new insights into the impact of tourism on the urban environment from multidisciplinary perspectives and a wide range of geographical regions across Europe North America Asia and South America Through these contemporary case studies the book further deepens our understanding of the ways in which ambiances and atmospheres pervade the physical regeneration and sensory transformation of contemporary tourist destinations Conversely this book offers insights on the effects of tourism on everyday urban experience By bringing together a diverse group of scholars and case studies to present a global perspective on the atmospheric production of the tourist city this book is to serve as a valuable reference tool for researchers and undergraduate and postgraduate students with an interest in urban ambiances tourism cultural geography and urban planning Chapter 1 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
