Play and Playwork Fraser Brown, Mike Wragg, 2019-07-09

Bringing together authors from a range of academic disciplines and research backgrounds united as standard bearers for the child's right to play and set against a backdrop evoking play's critical essence this book documents the rise and fall of an explosive period of political interest in play in the UK Has the withdrawal of so much state funding damaged the playwork profession forever Has the battle for recognition of the significance of play in child development been lost Why is children's happiness always so low on the agendas of our politicians The invaluable contributions in this book identify the lessons learned and the opportunities that may be available to those determined to maintain the struggle for a greater recognition of the importance of children's play in an era defined by the oppressive politics of austerity This book was originally published as a special issue of the International Journal of Play

Knowledge-building Karl Maton, Susan Hood, Suellen Shay, 2015-10-08 Education and knowledge have never been more important to society yet research is segmented by approach methodology or topic Legitimation Code Theory or LCT extends and integrates insights from Pierre Bourdieu and Basil Bernstein to offer a framework for research and practice that overcomes segmentalism This book shows how LCT can be used to build knowledge about education and society Comprising original papers by an international and multidisciplinary group of scholars Knowledge building offers the first primer in this fast growing approach Through case studies of major research projects Part I provides practical insights into how LCT can be used to build knowledge by enabling dialogue between theory and data in qualitative research bringing together quantitative and qualitative methodologies in mixed methods research relating theory and practice in praxis conducting interdisciplinary studies with systemic functional linguistics Part II offers a series of studies of pressing issues facing knowledge building in education and beyond encompassing diverse subject areas including physics English cultural studies music and design educational sites schooling vocational education and higher education practices of research curriculum pedagogy and assessment both education and informal learning contexts such as museums and masonic lodges Carefully sequenced and interrelated these chapters form a coherent collection that gives a unique insight into one of the most thought provoking and innovative ways of building knowledge about knowledge building in education and society to have emerged this century This book is essential reading for all serious students and scholars of education sociology and linguistics
