Tragedy of Julius Caesar William Shakespeare, 2024-02-04 The Tragedy of Julius Caesar is a tragedy by William Shakespeare believed to have been written in 1599 It portrays the 44 BC conspiracy against the Roman dictator Julius Caesar his assassination and the defeat of the conspirators at the Battle of Philippi It is one of several plays written by Shakespeare based on true events from Roman history which also include Coriolanus and Antony and Cleopatra Although the title is Julius Caesar Julius Caesar is not the most visible character in its action he appears in only five scenes Marcus Brutus speaks more than four times as many lines and the central psychological drama is his struggle between the conflicting demands of honor patriotism and friendship Characters Cassius wrote letters to Brutus in different handwritings over the next month in order to get Brutus to join the conspiracy A soothsayer warns Caesar to beware the Ides of March which he ignores culminating in his assassination at the Capitol by the conspirators that day despite being warned by the soothsayer and Artemidorus one of Caesar s supporters at the entrance of the Capitol Caesar s assassination is one of the most famous scenes of the play occurring in Act 3 the other is Marc Antony s oration Friends Romans countrymen After ignoring the soothsayer as well as his wife s own premonitions Caesar comes to the Senate The conspirators create a superficial motive for the assassination by means of a petition brought by Metellus Cimber pleading on behalf of his banished brother As Caesar predictably rejects the petition Casca grazes Caesar in the back of his neck and the others follow in stabbing him Brutus is last At this point Caesar utters the famous line Et tu Brute And you Brutus i e You too Brutus Shakespeare has him add Then fall Caesar suggesting that Caesar did not want to survive such treachery therefore becoming a hero Shakespeare's Tragedy of Julius Caesar William Shakespeare,Maud Elma Kingsley,1908 The Works of Shakespeare William Shakespeare,1905 Julius Caesar William Shakespeare,2017-12-04 When the play opens Julius Caesar has just returned to Rome after defeating the sons of Pompey in battle Before we go any further let s pause for a brief Roman history lesson Pompey a k a Pompey the Great was a member of the first triumvirate and he and Caesar used to share power over Rome Then Caesar and Pompey got into a big fight Pompey lost When he tried to run away to Egypt in 48 B C he was assassinated But Caesar still had a problem Pompey s sons were determined to avenge their father s death and overthrow Caesar So Caesar tracked down Pompey s sons in Spain and stomped them out at the Battle of Munda in 45 B C Now back to the play As Caesar parades through the streets of Rome like a rock star the higher ups in Rome are nervous about his growing power and his popularity with the commoners who have abandoned their work to celebrate Caesar s triumphant return Caesar seems headed toward absolute power which is a big no no in the Roman Republic Meanwhile the festival of the Lupercal a big party where people run around in goatskin g strings in the middle of February is in full swing Caesar is chilling at the festival with his entourage when a soothsayer runs up and says beware the Ides of March meaning hey watch your back on March 15 Caesar looks at the soothsayer and is all whatever man While Caesar parties with his fans Brutus and Cassius huddle together and talk trash about him Cassius is all bent out of shape because he thinks Caesar is running around acting like a king Without coming right out and saying so directly Cassius who has been plotting against Caesar with a group of conspirators suggests that maybe Brutus should lead Rome Brutus says he gets what Cassius is saying but he is also good friends with Caesar so he needs a little time to think about things before he makes any decisions Psst If you read the play closely there s some evidence that Brutus has already been thinking about getting rid of Caesar because he confesses that he

s been at war with himself meaning something s been bothering him Brutus and Cassius run into Casca a conspirator who reports that Antony just offered Caesar the crown three times Casca is mad because each time Caesar pretended he didn't want the crown which made the crowd of plebeians common folk love him even more Not only that but Caesar acted like a total drama queen and fainted or pretended to the third time Antony offered him the crown This made the stinking crowd go nuts A month passes which means we're approaching the Ides of March Cue the ominous music Casca and Cicero are running around in a violent thunderstorm and comment on all the crazy stuff that's been happening in Rome lately a lion was roaming around and a bunch of men in flames were spotted walking around the streets Cassius who interprets these omens to mean that Caesar must be taken down continues to plot against Caesar He sends someone to plant fake letters from Roman commoners urging Brutus to eliminate Caesar and attends a meeting that night to plot Caesar's death Meanwhile Brutus has decided to go ahead and kill his friend Caesar because the man might become a complete tyrant if he gains more power Brutus reasons that even though he and Caesar are BFFs killing Caesar is the only way to save the Roman Republic Is he right We don't know for sure but Shakespeare definitely wants us to think about this Brutus finally meets with all the conspirators and they hatch a plan they'll arrange to bring Caesar to the Capitol so they can hack him into a million little pieces
