Julius Shulman Palm Springs:

Julius Shulman, 2008-02-12 Through Julius Shulman's lens the architecture of Southern California became iconic images of modernism. His photographs heralded the glamor and casual elegance of a lifestyle and architecture that has become revered worldwide. Focusing on the desert paradise of Palm Springs which was his seminal crucible, this book presents his masterpieces. Images range from Richard Neutra's Kaufmann House and Albert Frey's Raymond Loewy House to Paul R. Williams' house for Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz, Frank Sinatra's house, John Lautner's house for Bob Hope, as well as other famous landmarks. The book features more than sixty buildings by fifteen of the most notable mid twentieth century architects. With new photography and images culled from his personal collection as well as the Getty Center, this book includes many images never before seen. Julius Shulman Color (Luxury Edition - Night) David Wills, 2024-02-15 Palm Springs Modern Adèle Cygelman, 1999 Examines the impact architects and designers have had on Palm Springs L.A. Obscura Julius Shulman, 1998 Julius Shulman Los Angeles Sam Lubell, Douglas Woods, 2016-02-16 A compilation of Julius Shulman's extraordinary images of his adopted city ranging from residential commercial shops factories and street life of Los Angeles, a true portrait of a modern metropolis. The book will show the photographs chronologically from 1934 when Shulman shot Richard Neutra's Sten House on spec to 1972 when Los Angeles comes into its own as a world metropolis. About 250 images of various aspects of the city life are represented from residential to commercial shops offices churches schools and street life. A Constructed View Joseph Rosa, Esther McCoy, 1994 Julius Shulman, one of the great masters of modern architectural photography, is the preeminent recorder of early California modernism. By 1927 when he was sixteen, Shulman was already using the family Brownie box camera to document his Southern California surroundings and experiences. In 1936 his professional career was launched when he sent Richard Neutra some uncommissioned photographs of the architect's Kun House. Shulman went on to document the famous Case Study House Program; architects included Charles and Ray Eames, Pierre Koenig and Eero Saarinen, and also the architecture of the 1930s through the 1980s, especially that of Southern California but also country and worldwide. His subjects included the buildings of R. M. Schindler, John Lautner, Raphael Soriano, Frank Lloyd Wright, Mies van der Rohe and Oscar Niemeyer among many others. Through his work, Shulman defined the image of Los Angeles and framed the architecture of the time for a global audience. In addition to an overview of Shulman's career and photographic oeuvre, this book emphasizes Shulman's method of constructing photographic views. These constructions, which complemented his innate ability to compose striking photographs, often transcend reality to capture the spirit, time and place of a work of architecture. An analysis of architecture's visual presentation examines not only the media of the era, John Entenza's Arts and Architecture, for instance, but also the work of Shulman's photographic contemporaries. had long been absent from Hollywood at this point to leave her low paying job as a TV talk show host to join the cast From the writers room during Billy Wilder and Charles Brackett s final collaboration to the moment when the film won three Academy Awards scholar and former Rolling Stone staffer David M Lubin takes readers on a fascinating journey through film history that proves once and for all why Sunset Boulevard is one of the most iconic films in cinematic history Just in time for the film s 75th anniversary Ready for My Closeup breathes life into a beloved masterpiece of American cinema Dwell,2001-12 At Dwell we re staging a minor revolution We think that it s possible to live in a house or apartment by a bold modern architect to own furniture and products that are exceptionally well designed and still be a regular human being We think that good design is an integral part of real life And that real life has been conspicuous by its absence in most design and architecture magazines The Frontier of Leisure Lawrence Culver,2012-06-07 Tracing the history of Southern California from the late 19th century through the late 20th century this book reveals how this region did much more than just create lavish resorts like Santa Catalina Island and Palm Springs it literally remade American attitudes towards leisure

Havenhand,2019-01-24 Mid Century Modern Interiors explores the history of interior design during arguably its most iconic and influential period The 1930s to the 1960s in the United States was a key moment for interior design It not only saw the emergence of some of interior design s most globally important designers it also saw the field of interior design emerge at last as a profession in its own right Through a series of detailed case studies this book introduces the key practitioners of the period world renowned designers including Ray and Charles Eames Richard Neutra and George Nelson and examines how they developed new approaches by applying systematic and rational principles to the creation of interior spaces It takes us into the mind of the designer to show how they each used interior design to express their varied theoretical interests and reveals how the principles they developed have become embodied in the way interior design is practiced today This focus on unearthing the underlying ideas and concepts behind their designs rather than on the finished results creates a richer more conceptual understanding of this pivotal period in modernist design history With an extended introduction setting the case studies within the broader context of twentieth century design and architectural history this book provides both an introduction and an in depth analysis for students and scholars of interior design architecture and design history

Nothing Permanent Todd Cronan, 2023-06-20 A critical look at the competing motivations behind one of modern architecture's most widely known and misunderstood movements Although mid century modern has evolved into a highly popular and ubiquitous architectural style this term obscures the varied perspectives and approaches of its original practitioners In Nothing Permanent Todd Cronan displaces generalizations with a nuanced intellectual history of architectural innovation in California between 1920 and 1970 uncovering the conflicting intentions that would go on to reshape the future of American domestic life Focusing on four primary figures R M Schindler Richard Neutra and Charles and Ray Eames Nothing Permanent demonstrates how this prolific era of modern architecture in California rather than constituting a homogenous movement was propelled by disparate approaches and aims Exemplified by the twin pillars of Schindler and Neutra and their respective ideological factions these two groups of architects represent opposing poles of architectural intentionality embodying divergent views about the dynamic between interior and exterior the idea of permanence and the extent to which architects could exercise control over the inhabitants of their structures Looking past California modernism's surface level idealization in present day style guides home decor publications films and television shows Nothing Permanent details the intellectual aesthetic and practical debates that lie at the roots of this complex architectural moment Extracting this period from its diffusion into visual culture Cronan argues that mid century architecture in California raised questions about the meaning of architecture and design that remain urgent today
