Goodrich, 2013-03-12 The development of A POETIC KALEIDOSCOPE came about when friends after reading A LOVE TRILOGY suggested that Ted write some more poems Of all the subjects he picked PURGATORY was the challenge he chose This poem was an extreme challenge due to the complexity of the subject and from that poem on the rest just blossomed Christmas Kaleidoscope LoLyn Jacobs, 2013-01-21 The first thing I put up during Thanksgiving weekend after laying self sticking tile on the living room floor was my little Christmas tree Branch by branch I put it together Picture ornaments went up one by one then the skirt And I put on top the little angel Lydia made last summer at camp because all Christmas trees should have a new ornament looking to the future as well as the many old ones remembering the past The following weekend our Thanksgiving weekend Benjamin and Lydia were with me and Sunday morning in Las Vegas Nevada it snowed to welcome the Christmas season Now at last I understand why the Christmas decorations cant be up all year round Now the time is right to put Christmas away for another year The treasures of the past must be put away tenderly just as the memories to be cherished and protected but not kept out in the open all the time And every Christmas season I want to take the time to feel them and remember them in a kaleidoscope of memories then put them away looking toward the future remembering all the miracles in my life that have brought me through this half
