Sensenig, 2016-03-02 What happens when North American Mennonite Christians arrive in Islamic Somalia The answer according to Peter Sensenig is that something new emerges a peace clan From the first schools and medical work in the 1950s up to the educational partnerships of the present day Somalis and Mennonites formed a surprising friendship that defied conventional labels Peace Clan is the story of two deeply traditional communities as they encounter change How can Somalis apply the profound peacemaking resources of their culture and faith in a society fragmented by violence And how can modernizing Mennonites make sense of their peace convictions in the context of civil war and military intervention In struggling with these questions over the course of six decades Somalis and Mennonites held a mirror up to one another The author shows how the common quest to transform enmity brings out the best in both communities and suggests what a fruitful partnership might look like in the present challenges Students academics and lay readers alike will find on these pages a compelling invitation to join the peace clan This Side of Heaven Robert J. Think Red Larry Stoess, 2021-09-27 Have you ever wondered what the church would look like if Christians began to take the words of Jesus seriously the words some Bibles print in red What if Jesus actually meant for us to do the things he said What if those who believe in Jesus really did value the things he valued Would the church look different Would your neighborhood stay the same In Think Red Larry Stoess takes a close look at the values the vision and the mission of Jesus and then holds up a mirror for us to see if our communities look anything like Jesus If we dare look in the mirror we may be inspired to leave behind our obsession with consumer based religion and follow the way of Jesus Those who do will be set free to imagine creative and whimsical Theologizing in Black Celucien L. Joseph,2020-04-15 Theologizing in Black is a creative and rigorous comparative study on black theological musings and liberative intellectual contemplations engaging the theological ethics and anthropology of both continental African theologians Tanzania Kenya Democratic Republic of the Congo and black theologians in the African Diaspora Haiti Trinidad Jamaica Antigua and Barbuda United States Using the pluralist approach to religion promoted by the philosopher of religion and theologian John Hick the book is also an attempt to bridge an important gap in the comparative study of religion Africana Studies and Liberation theology both in Africa and its diaspora The book provides an analytical framework and intellectual critique of white Christian theologians who deliberately disengage with and exclude black and Africana theologians in their theological writings and conversations From this vantage point Africana critical theology is said to be a theology of contestation as it seeks to deconstruct white supremacy in the theological enterprise This book not only articulates a rhetoric of protest about the misrepresentation and underrepresentation of the humanity of African and black people in white theological imagination it also enunciates a positive image of black humanity and congruently promulgates a constructive representation of blackness The paramount goal of Africana theological anthropology and ethics is the preservation of life and promotion of human dignity and the sheer acknowledgement that the African people and people of African descent are bearers of the image of God

In the Midst of Much-Doing Charles R. Ringma, 2023-05-31 How are we to sustain activism and compassion amidst the never ending crises of the twenty first century While the concern for social justice is deeply biblical cynicism burnout and despair are all too common side effects when action is divorced from contemplation To effectively serve as the hands and feet of Jesus the church must attend to the revitalization of its inner life through the spiritual practices which feed support and sustain the work of the kingdom Rather than the fragmentation and dualism that have led denominations to choose between prayer and service evangelization and justice the church must integrate heart mind and body in order to fulfil its calling to transform the world from within Drawing from Scripture and a wide range of Christian traditions from the monastic to the evangelical this book inspires its readers to integrate spiritual renewal and prophetic witness for the glory of God and the good of his creation
