Justice Provocateur Gray Cavender, Nancy C. Jurik, 2012-08-15 Justice Provocateur focuses on Prime Suspect a popular British television film series starring Oscar and Emmy award winning actress Helen Mirren as fictional London policewoman Jane Tennison Gray Cavender and Nancy C Jurik examine the media constructions of justice gender and police work in the show exploring its progressive treatment of contemporary social problems in which women are central protagonists They argue that the show acts as a vehicle for progressive moral fiction fiction that gives voice to victim experiences locates those experiences within a larger social context transcends traditional legal definitions of justice for victims and offers insights into ways that individuals might challenge oppressive social and organizational arrangements Although Prime Suspect is often seen as a uniquely progressive feminist inspired example within the typically more conservative male dominated crime genre Cavender and Jurik also address the complexity of the films gender politics Consistent with some significant criticisms of the films they identify key moments in the series when Tennison s character appears to move from a successful woman who has it all to a post feminist stereotype of a lonely aging career woman with no strong family or friendship ties Shrewdly interpreting the show as an illustration of the tensions and contradictions of women s experiences and their various relations to power Justice Provocateur provides a framework for interrogating the meanings and implications of justice gender and social transformation both on and off the screen

Anthropocide Rafe McGregor, 2025-01-17 Through an examination of Alfonso Cuarón's Children of Men this book demonstrates the ability of cinematic fictions and other complex narrative fictions to contribute to meeting the climate challenge by shaping the desires of audiences What if there was a single feature film that showed us everything we need to know about climate catastrophe culture What if that same film also made the philosophies of Slavoj Žižek Mark Fisher Francis Fukuyama and Fredric Jameson accessible Identifying the climate challenge as a cultural challenge this book provides an unprecedented criminological analysis of both Children of Men and Fisher's oeuvre from 1998 to 2022 and demonstrates the capacity of cinematic narratives to shape climate catastrophe culture Seeking to be part of the solution to the climate challenge it is the first criminological study to link the capacity of cinematic fictions to shape desire to solutions to the climate crisis It is also one of the most detailed and most rigorous criminological case studies of a cinematic work to date Anthropocide: An Essay in Green Cultural Criminology will be of great interest to students and scholars of green criminology cultural criminology narrative criminology film theory philosophy of film and ecocriticism Lawyering With Integrity: Essays In Honour of Ernest Ojukwu, SAN Sam Erugo, Charles O. Adekoya, 2018-05-20 Lawyering with Integrity is presented as a collection of essays in appreciation of the profound contributions of a Nigerian agent of change in legal education and the profession Professor Ernest Ojukwu SAN Ernest or Teacher as he is fondly called is renowned as a great law teacher and more specifically for legal education reforms and institutionalization of clinical legal education ethics and professional integrity advocacy This Teacher's illustrious work has thrown him into limelight in the international legal education community He is a great law teacher lawyer and administrator elevated to the revered rank of Senior Advocate of Nigeria in 2014 in recognition of his contributions to legal academics in Nigeria As the title suggests the subject of this collection has carried on with integrity and demonstrating and preaching values especially integrity He is our model of lawyering with integrity as endorsed by most contributors here Law Enforcement in American Cinema, 1894-1952 George Beck,2020-11-10 Widespread law enforcement or formal policing outside of cities appeared in the early 20th century around the same time the early film industry was developing the two evolved in tandem intersecting in meaningful ways Much scholarship has focused on portrayals of the criminal in early American cinema yet little has been written about depictions of the criminal s antagonist This history examines how different on screen representations shifted public perception of law enforcement initially seen as a suspicious or intrusive institution then as a power for the common good A Criminology Of Narrative Fiction Rafe McGregor,2022-07-12 Drawing on complex narratives across film TV novels and graphic novels this authoritative critical analysis demonstrates the value of fictional narratives as a tool for understanding explaining and reducing crime and social harm McGregor establishes an original theory of the criminological value of fiction Recovering Police Legitimacy Rafe McGregor,2024-07-11 Transatlantic policing is experiencing an unprecedented crisis of legitimacy epitomised by public responses to the murders of George Floyd and Sarah Everard during the COVID 19 pandemic Legitimacy is lost when the police either fail to protect the public or rely on coercion rather than consent to achieve that protection Recovering Police Legitimacy challenges conventional criminological political and public solutions to the problem by approaching it from the bottom up beginning with policing as a practice constituted by a unique set of excellences skills and characteristics The author draws on his experience as a police officer and on the serial fictions of James Ellroy David Peace and Nic Pizzolatto to characterise the practice in terms of heroic struggle edgework absolute sacrifice and worldmaking These characteristics provide an analytic tool for revolutionising our understanding of the relations among policing as a situated practice public protection and police legitimacy and for identifying the different levels at which legitimacy is undermined His conclusion is that recovery is possible but will be slow in pace and incomplete in scope Written accessibly for students police officers policymakers scholars and anyone with an interest in police legitimacy this is a groundbreaking study of a pressing social problem Routledge Handbook on Deviance Stephen E. Battering States Madelaine Adelman,2021-04-30 Battering States explores the most personal part of people s lives as they intersect with a uniquely complex state system The book examines how statecraft shapes domestic violence how a state defines itself and determines what counts as a family how a state establishes sovereignty and defends its borders and how a state organizes its legal system and forges its economy The ethnography includes stories from people places and perspectives not commonly incorporated in domestic violence studies and in doing so reveals the transformation of intimate partner violence from a predictable form of marital trouble to a publicly recognized social problem The politics of domestic violence create novel entry points to understanding how although women may be vulnerable to gender based violence they do not necessarily share the same kind of belonging to the state This means that markers of identity and power such as gender nationality ethnicity religion and religiosity and socio economic and geographic location matter when it comes to safety and pathways to justice The study centers on Israel where a number of factors bring connections between the cultural politics of the state and domestic violence into stark relief the presence of a contentious multinational and multiethnic population competing and overlapping sets of religious and civil laws a growing gap between the wealthy and the poor and the dominant presence of a security state in people s everyday lives The exact combination of these factors is unique to Israel but they are typical of states with a diverse population in a time of globalization In this way the example of Israel offers insights wherever the political and personal impinge on one another

Critical Criminology and Literary Criticism McGregor, Rafe,2021-11-08 There is increasing pressure on the humanities to justify their value and on criminology to undertake interdisciplinary research In this book Rafe McGregor establishes a new interdisciplinary methodology criminological criticism harnessing the synergy between literary studies and critical criminology to produce genuine interventions in social reality McGregor practices criminological criticism on George Miller s Mad Max Fury Road Prime Video s Carnival Row and J K Rowling s The Cuckoo s Calling demonstrating how these popular allegories provide insights into the harms of sexism racism and class prejudice This book proposes a model for collaboration between literary studies and critical criminology that is beneficial to the humanities the social sciences and society

Love and the Fighting Female Allison P. Palumbo,2020-07-16 The fighting female archetype a self reliant woman of great physical prowess has become increasingly common in action films and on television However the progressive female identities of these narratives cannot always resist the persistent and problematic framing of male female relationships as a battle of the sexes or other source of antagonism Combining cultural analysis with close readings of key popular American film and television texts since the 1980s this study argues that certain fighting female themes question regressive conventions in male female relationships Those themes reveal potentially progressive ideologies regarding female agency in mass culture that reassure audiences of the desirability of empowered women while also imagining egalitarian intimacies that further empower women Overall the fighting female narratives addressed here afford contradictory viewing pleasures that reveal both new expectations for and remaining anxieties about the strong independent woman ideal that emerged in American popular culture post feminism

Literary Theory and Criminology Rafe McGregor, 2023-07-31 Literary Theory and Criminology demonstrates the significance of contemporary literary theory to the discipline of criminology particularly to those criminologists who are primarily concerned with questions of power inequality and harm Drawing on innovations in philosophical narrative cultural and pulp criminology it sets out a deconstructive framework as part of a critical criminological critique praxis This book comprises eight essays on globalisation criminological fiction poststructuralism patriarchal political economy racial capitalism anthropocidal ecocide critical theory and critical praxis that argue for the value of contemporary literary theory to a critical criminology concerned with the construction of a just and sustainable reality in the face of climate change and other mass harms This is the first criminology book to engage with literary theory from the perspective of criminology and provides a guide for criminologists who want to deploy literary theory as part of their research programmes It supersedes existing engagements with poststructuralism in the philosophical criminological tradition because it entails neither a constructionist ontology nor a relativist epistemology It shows criminologists how literary theory offers the tools to first deconstruct and then reconstruct meaning and value Literary Theory and Criminology is essential reading for all critical criminological theorists

Beyond Bombshells Jeffrey A. Brown, 2015-09-09 Beyond Bombshells analyzes the cultural importance of strong women in a variety of current media forms Action heroines are now more popular in movies comic books television and literature than they have ever been Their spectacular presence represents shifting ideas about female agency power and sexuality Beyond Bombshells explores how action heroines reveal and reconfigure perceptions about how and why women are capable of physically dominating roles in modern fiction indicating the various strategies used to contain and or exploit female violence Focusing on a range of successful and controversial recent heroines in the mass media including Katniss Everdeen from The Hunger Games books and movies Lisbeth Salander from The Girl with the Dragon Tattoo novels and films and Hit Girl from the Kick Ass movies and comic books Jeffrey A Brown argues that the role of action heroine reveals evolving beliefs about femininity While women in action roles are still heavily sexualized and objectified they also challenge preconceived myths about normal or culturally appropriate gender behavior The ascribed sexuality of modern heroines remains Brown s consistent theme particularly how objectification intersects with issues of racial stereotyping romantic fantasies images of violent adolescent and preadolescent girls and neoliberal feminist revolutionary parables Individual chapters study the gendered dynamics of torture in action films the role of women in partnerships with male colleagues young women as well as revolutionary leaders in dystopic societies adolescent sexuality and romance in action narratives the historical import of nonwhite heroines and how modern African American Asian and Latina heroines both challenge and are restricted by longstanding racial stereotypes The Best Murders Are British Jim Daems, 2020-08-26 A staple of television since the early years of the BBC British crime drama first crossed the Atlantic on public broadcasting stations and specialty cable channels and later through streaming services Often engaging with domestic anxieties about the government's power or lack thereof and with larger issues of social justice like gender equality racism and homophobia it has constantly evolved to reflect social and cultural changes while adapting U S and Nordic noir influences in a way that retains its characteristically British elements This collection examines the continuing appeal of British crime drama from The Sweeney through Sherlock Marcella and Happy Valley Individual essays focus on male melodrama nostalgia definitions of community gender and LGBTQ representation and neoliberalism The persistence of the English murder as each chapter of this collection reveals points to the complexity of British crime drama's engagement with social political and cultural issues It is precisely the mix of British stereotypes coupled with a willingness to engage with broader global social and political issues that makes British crime drama such a successful cultural export

Victims, Perpetrators and Professionals Tingting Hu, 2021-06-07 This book examines the representation of women in relation to violence in Chinese crime films made on the mainland and in Hong Kong and Taiwan It introduces a new trajectory in the investigation of the cinematic representation of female figures in relation to gender issues by interweaving Western feminist and postfeminist critiques with traditional Chinese sociocultural discourse An in depth narrative identifies three major representations of women the female victim the female perpetrator of violence and the female professional Salience to contemporary society shows up in many ways passive and active all of which reinforce a sense of male dominance and patriarchal power Analysis bridges the gap in the field of female representation in Chinese culture Chinese film studies by systematically examining Chinese crime films as a genre in its own right The depiction of female victimisation at the hands of men in the selected crime films consolidates the notion of women's vulnerability and inferiority as perceived in Chinese gender discourse On the other hand the representation of active female perpetrators of violence and as professional working women presents what may be seen as a postfeminist masquerade a cultural strategy that shows an ostensible impression of female empowerment albeit that it reinforces traditional gender hierarchies in the Chinese gender context While graphic female victimisation is commonly presented female perpetrators of violence and females in professional roles in crime films are shown to remain under the control of male authority leading to the conclusion that Chinese crime films are produced in a context of heavy patriarchal power and misogyny
