Julie Snow Architect New Voices In Architecture:

Julie Snow Architects Julie Snow, Julie Snow Architects, 2005-04-07 It is an unfortunate reality that architects practicing in the great expanse between the East and West coasts all too often find themselves beyond the radar of the profession's so-called tastemakers. And it is especially a shame in the case of Julie Snow, a Minneapolis-based architect who has over the past decade developed one of the most inventive practices anywhere in the United States. Snow's meticulously constructed work has the structural opacity and formal integrity that characterized Mies van der Rohe's architecture but with a sense of humanity and a sensitivity to the environment that seems borrowed from her Midwestern progenitor Frank Lloyd Wright. This, the first monograph on Snow's work, provides in-depth documentation of 14 of her residential, institutional, corporate, and public projects, including the Koehler Residence in New Brunswick, Canada; a series of Minneapolis Light Rail Stations; the Minnesota Children's Museum; and the University of South Dakota School of Business. Julie Snow Architect is produced in collaboration with award-winning designer Andrew Blauvelt and features an introductory essay by Jan Abrams, director of the Minnesota Design Institute. An Architecture of the Ozarks Marlon Blackwell, David Buege, Dan Hoffman, Juhani Pallasmaa, 2005-04-07

I live, practice, teach, and build in northwest Arkansas in the foothills of the Ozark Mountains. It is a place considered to be in the middle of nowhere yet ironically close to everywhere. It is an environment of real natural beauty and simultaneously one of real constructed ugliness. Abandonment, exploitation, erasure, and nostalgia are all aspects of this place and are conditions as authentic as its natural beauty and local form. This land of disparate conditions is not just a setting for my work; it is part of the work. By choosing to live and work here to call it home, I've been able to get beyond the surface of things to turn over the rock and discover the complex and rich underbelly of my place: its visceral presences and expressive character that so informs and sustains my efforts. I am working from the conviction that architecture is larger than the subject of architecture. Marlon Blackwell is a passionate polemicist. He is also a very gifted architect. The projects in this first monograph on the radical ruralist as touted by the Royal Institute of British Architects offer a new architectural language that at once celebrates the vernacular and transgresses the boundaries of the conventional. The results are what we can't help it there is no better word: beautiful. Incisive essays by David Buege, Dan Hoffman, and Juhani Pallasmaa and lush photography by Tim Hursley, Richard Johnson, and Kevin Latady explore Blackwell's projects, including his widely acclaimed Keenan Tower House, the award-winning Moore Honey House, 2 Square House, and Flynn Schmitt Barn House studios and institutional buildings. Kuth/Ranieri Architects Byron Kuth, Elizabeth Ranieri, Ila Leslie Berman, 2010-03-31

A monograph on SF-based architects Kuth/Ranieri. The book is organized into three distinct sections. Ila Berman introduces the monograph with her essay Paradoxical Matters and provides additional text insertions that appear on selected projects throughout the volume. Charles Rose, Architect Charles Rose, 2006 Rose's architecture is characterised by warm, natural materials, particularly wood, that reflect his ecological sensitivity and attention to sustainability in buildings. This book presents ten of his award winning institutional commercial and residential buildings An Architecture of the Ozarks, 2005-06-10 Marlon Blackwell is a passionate polemicist He is also a very gifted architect The projects in this first monograph on the radical ruralist as touted by the Royal Institute of British Architects offer a new architectural language that at once celebrates the vernacular and transgress the boundaries of the conventional The results are we can't help it there's no better word beautiful Incisive essays by David Buege Dan Hoffman and Juhani Pallasmaa and lush photography by Tim Hursley Richard Johnson and Kevin Latady explore Blackwell's projects including his widely acclaimed Keenan Tower House the award winning Moore Honey House 2 Square House and Flynn Schmitt Barn House studios and institutional buildings Marlon Blackwell has received national and international recognition for his residential projects He teaches architecture at the University of Arkansas Fayetteville VJAA Vincent James, Jennifer Yoos, 2007-01-25 Among the critical adulation that follows VJAA wherever they build you'll find words like graceful beautiful sublime quiet classic disciplined and light all suggesting the kind of alchemy that makes the work of this Minnesota based firm so highly regarded The magic they perform marrying the simple forms of modernism with the rich materials of their sites in a thoughtful framework that encourages social interaction and environmental responsibility is carefully illustrated and explained in this monograph which evokes the very qualities that make their work so seductive and compelling A former furniture maker principal Vincent James brings the woodworker's appreciation of materials details joinery and structure to the firm's work which here includes both their award winning houses such as the Dayton and Type Variant houses and institutional projects such as the Minneapolis Rowing Club Tulane University Center and St John's Abbey and Monastery Guesthouse Along with an introductory essay by Hashim Sarkis partners Vincent James and Jennifer Yoos provide a captivating and insightful portrait of their talented young firm Lewis.Tsurumaki.Lewis Paul Lewis, Marc Tsurumaki, David J.
