Bibliographia Neerlandica A. M. P. Mollema, 1962 Decolonising Europe? Berny Sèbe, Matthew G.

Stanard, 2020-04-01 Decolonising Europe Popular Responses to the End of Empire offers a new paradigm to understand decolonisation in Europe by showing how it was fundamentally a fluid process of fluxes and refluxes involving not only transfers of populations ideas and sociocultural practices across continents but also complex intra European dynamics at a time of political convergence following the Treaty of Rome Decolonisation was neither a process of sudden rapid changes to European cultures nor one of cultural inertia but a development marked by fluidity movement and dynamism Rather than being a static process where Europe's former metropolises and their peoples at home reacted to the end of empire out there decolonisation translated into new realities for Europe's cultures societies and politics as flows ebbs fluxes and cultural refluxes reshaped both former colonies and former metropolises The volume's contributors set out a carefully crafted panorama of decolonisation's sequels in European popular culture by means of in depth studies of specific cases and media analysing the interwoven meaning momentum memory material culture and migration patterns of the end of empire across eight major European countries The revised meaning of decolonisation that emerges will challenge scholars in several fields and the panorama of new research in the book charts paths for new investigations The question mark in the title asks not only how European cultures experienced the end of empire but also the extent to which this is still a work in progress

Shifting the Compass Jeroen Dewulf, Michiel van Kempen, Olf Praamstra, 2012-12-19 While the inclusion of a hybrid perspective to highlight local dynamics has become increasingly common in the analysis of both colonial and postcolonial literature the dominant intercontinental connection in the analysis of this literature has remained with the former motherland The lack of attention to intercontinental connections is particularly deplorable when it comes to the analysis of literature written in the language of a former colonial empire that consisted of a global network of possessions One of these languages is Dutch While the seventeenth century Dutch were relative latecomers in the European colonial expansion they were able to build a network that achieved global dimensions With West India Company WIC operations in New Netherland on the American East Coast the Caribbean Northeastern Brazil and the African West Coast and East India Company VOC operations in South Africa the Malabar Coromandel and the Bengal coast in India Ceylon Sri Lanka Malacca in Malaysia Ayutthaya in Siam Thailand Tainan in Formosa Taiwan Deshima in Japan and the islands of the Southeast Asian archipelago the Dutch achieved dominion over global trade for more than a century Paraphrasing Paul Gilroy one could argue that there was not just a Dutch Atlantic in the seventeenth century but rather a Dutch Oceanus Despite its global scale the intercultural dynamics in the literature that developed in this transoceanic network have traditionally been studied from a Dutch and or a local perspective but rarely from a multi continental one This collection of articles presents new perspectives on Dutch colonial and postcolonial literature by shifting the compass of analysis Naturally an important point of the compass continues to point in the direction of Amsterdam The Hague and Leiden be it due to the use of the Dutch language the importance of Dutch publishers readers media and research centers the memory of Dutch heritage in libraries and archives or the large number of Dutch citizens with roots in the former colonial world Other points of the compass however indicate different directions They highlight the importance of pluricontinental contacts within the Dutch global colonial network and pay specific attention to groups in the Dutch colonial and postcolonial context that have operated through a network of contacts in the diaspora such as the Afro Caribbean the Sephardic Jewish and the Indo European communities Bibliography of the Indonesian Revolution H.A.J. Klooster, 2024-12-09 Interest in the Indonesian Revolution a period of crucial importance in the history of modern Indonesia continues unabated as reflected in this bibliography The bibliography lists more than 6 000 titles related to the Indonesian Revolution 1945 1949 the West Irian issue 1950 1962 and the South Moluccan question 1950 1951 and its aftermath It is the first bibliography of such depth and scope and purports to offer a complete listing of scholarly works including unpublished theses as well as journalistic accounts pamphlets memoirs and fictional works Most of the works listed are in Indonesian Dutch or English but relevant works in French German Russian Japanese and other languages have also been included An introduction allows a first acquaintance with the mass of publications listed The titles are arranged by period and subdivided by language Indexes of authors of subjects of persons and of geographical names make it possible to access the titles in more detail The National Union Catalog, Pre-1956 Imprints Library of Congress, American Library Association.
