Transition and Transformation in Hungary Krisztina Oláh, 2025-07-31 Moving from communist regimes to democratically elected governments in 1990 initiated radical political economic and cultural transition in Central and Eastern Europe Emerging from the shadows of communist rule in Hungary visible in the widespread presence of corruption autocratic leadership and counter economy how can personal Christian values bring lasting change to the work leadership and business activities of individuals and their organizations Bridging the gap between secular and sacred in philosophy theology and business studies Krisztina Oláh seeks to define how the integrated life of those Christians in business can be the solution to widespread corruption With academic rigor and interdisciplinary scope Oláh s qualitative interviews and survey data present empirical insight from experienced Christian business leaders as well as authentic perspectives on ethical leadership to lay out practical tools in overcoming the challenges they face This exploration of post communist transformation in the Hungarian context will have relevance to any scholar practitioner or Christian business leader who longs to see the practice of biblical values reshape their environment

Christian Contours Douglas S. Huffman, 2012-01-12 What does it mean to think and live Christianly in a world of competing worldviews Christian Contours answers this question by inviting readers to consider the understanding of reality proposed by the Bible Though it is easy to divide life into separate compartments religious and secular theological and practical faith invites us to view all of life in the light of that Biblical understanding Presenting a clear compelling case for unity in essential Christian tenets the authors of Christian Contours guide the reader through developing internalizing and articulating a biblical worldview This robust worldview enables the Christian to be a critically thinking participant in culture and to be a faithful disciple of Christ with both heart and mind

A Noble Calling David W. Whitlock, Gordon Dutilleul, 2008-01-01 Too often individuals who have been called to practice their gifts and talents in the field of business and professional life sense that to serve God they ought to be doing something more directly involved with the church Many successful business leaders upon coming to faith in Christ or upon renewing their interest in God s Word struggle with whether or not they should enter vocational ministry Certainly God calls some from among the professions into such vocations but many simply haven t realized the full potential of where God has placed them God s people who are assigned to duties in corporate boardrooms or offices on sales forces in entrepreneurial ventures and as members of research and development teams are among his most effective servants Believers who are active in the marketplace are surely among God s most treasured ministers and have the potential to have a wider impact and larger influence than most who serve in full time vocational ministries Likewise these professionals have a capacity for great harm to the church and the cause of Christ if while they make claims of Christian belief their actions prove inconsistent with what God's Word teaches if their walk doesn't match their talk. Be encouraged! God wants to use you where you are. He wants to sanctify all of what you have learned and experienced. You have great potential in the kingdom.

Public Theology in Law and Life Paul Babie, Brian Edgar, David Wilson, 2012-08-30. Public theology involves the application of biblical and theological principles outside the confines of the church and assesses their implications for wider society. It examines both the theoretical structures of society, the nature of secularity, government, globalisation, pluralism, and so forth, and the myriad specific issues involved in daily life, everything from sport to work place relations to economics. Public theology is also very importantly a discipline that is practiced by the ordinary Christian as well as the academic and it is done in public with all the scrutiny that entails and in such a way that it communicates to non-Christians, although it remains a theological endeavour. In a real sense it is theology for the world from the Word by the people of God. The volume has a variety of contributors and includes an article on the role of public theology in Islam. Doing God's Business R. Paul Stevens, 2006-08-10. Stevens explores the potential of business as both a location for practicing everyday spiritual disciplines and a source of creativity and deeper relationship with God. This volume should encourage and challenge businesspersons in all segments of the marketplace to more faithfully integrate their faith and work lives. God at Work David W. Miller, 2007. In the 1980s Miller shows a complex set of independent developments gave rise to what is known as the Faith At Work movement. He analyses the history of the movement, examines membership profiles and modes of expression, and constructs and proposes a new framework for discussing the movement.
