Justice Gained Crime And Crime Control In South Africa's Transition:

Justice Gained? Bill Dixon, Elrena Van der Spuy, 2004 Ten years into South Africa's new democracy crime and what should be done about it are the subject of endless debate Arguments rage about everything from the accuracy of the country's crime statistics to the state of its prison but why is crime such a persistent problem How have patterns of offending changed over the course of South Africa's transition to democracy This book provides a series of essays examine the issues and provide insight into solutions The Era of Transitional Justice Paul Gready, 2010-10-18 First Published in 2011 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Governing through Crime in South Africa Gail Super, 2016-04-22 This book deals with the historic transition to democracy in South Africa and its impact upon crime and punishment It examines how the problem of crime has emerged as a major issue to be governed in post apartheid South Africa Having undergone a dramatic transition from authoritarianism to democracy from a white minority to black majority government South Africa provides rich material on the role that political authority and challenges to it play in the construction of crime and criminality As such the study is about the socio cultural and political significance of crime and punishment in the context of a change of regime The work uses the South African case study to examine a question of wider interest namely the politics of punishment and race in neoliberalizing regimes It provides interesting and illuminating empirical material to the broader debate on crime control in post welfare neoliberalizing post transition polities Policing and Crime Control in Post-apartheid South Africa Anne-Marie Singh, 2016-04-22 Once a marginal political issue crime control now occupies a central place on the social political and economic agenda of contemporary liberal democracies Nowhere more so than in post apartheid South Africa where the transition from apartheid rule to democratic rule was marked by a shift in concern from political to criminal violence In this book Anne Marie Singh offers a comprehensive account of policing transformations in post apartheid South Africa Her analysis of crime and mechanisms for its control is linked to an analysis of neo liberal policies providing the basis for a critique of existing analyses of liberal democratic governance Themes addressed in the book include the exercise of coercive authority state and non state expertise in policing the rationally choosing criminal and the importance of developing an active and responsible citizenship Race, Ethnicity, Crime, and Justice Akwasi Owusu-Bempah, Shaun Gabbidon, 2020-09-24 Race Ethnicity Crime and Justice An International Dilemma Second Edition takes a unique comparative approach to the exploration of race and ethnicity related justice issues in five countries around the world Using the colonial model as a theoretical lens Owusu Bempah and Gabbidon analyse data from Great Britain the United States Canada Australia and South Africa These international case studies help students contextualize race and justice issues within and across nations Concise historical framing illuminates today's racial dynamics in these diverse justice systems and accessible theory grounds the comparison of crime and justice data from the early 21st century with current statistics A new concluding chapter revisits the question of where these nations fit in the global context of state and non state actors and of ethnic and racial justice issues This new edition is suitable for use as a core or supplemental text for advanced undergraduates and early graduate courses on race and crime minorities and criminal justice diversity in criminal justice and comparative justice systems It is also appropriate for use in sociology and ethnic studies courses that focus on race and crime

The Truth about Crime Jean Comaroff, John L. Comaroff, 2016-12-05 This new book by the well known anthropologists Jean and John L Comaroff explores the global preoccupation with criminality in the early twenty first century a preoccupation strikingly disproportionate in most places and for most people to the risks posed by lawlessness to the conduct of everyday life Ours in an epoch in which law making law breaking and law enforcement are ever more critical registers in which societies construct contest and confront truths about themselves an epoch in which criminology broadly defined has displaced sociology as the privileged means by which the social world knows itself They also argue that as the result of a tectonic shift in the triangulation of capital the state and governance the meanings attached to crime and with it the nature of policing have undergone significant change also that there has been a palpable muddying of the lines between legality and illegality between corruption and conventional business even between crime and policing which exist nowadays in ever greater hyphenated complicity Thinking through Crime and Policing is therefore an excursion into the contemporary Order of Things or rather into the metaphysic of disorder that saturates the late modern world indeed has become its leitmotif It is also a meditation on sovereignty and citizenship on civility class and race on the law and its transgression on the political economy of representation

Plural Policing Trevor Jones, Tim Newburn, 2006 Policing is changing rapidly and radically A growing body of research is concerned with the development of plural policing provided by a range of public private and municipal bodies This book will provide the most up to date work of reference for scholars in this field

Prison Violence Kristine Levan, 2016-04-08 Drawing on a range of research and media sources to provide an international perspective on the topic of prison violence this book focuses on the impact of such violence on the individual both while he or she is incarcerated and upon his or her release from prison as well as on society as a whole With a special emphasis on comparisons of violence among incarcerated populations in the United States Canada and the United Kingdom Prison Violence Causes Consequences and Solutions explores the various systems that exist to combat the problem whilst also considering public perceptions of offenders and punishment as influenced by media and coverage of high profile cases Providing a comprehensive analysis of prison violence on national and international levels this book examines the extent of the problem theoretical understandings of the issue and concrete solutions designed to prevent and handle such violence As such it will be of interest to policy makers as well as scholars of sociology criminology and penology

City Futures Doctor Edgar Pieterse, 2008-11-20 Cities are the future In the past two decades a global urban revolution has taken place mainly in the South The mega cities of the developing world are home to over 10 million people each and even smaller cities are experiencing unprecedented population surges The problems surrounding this influx of people slums poverty unemployment and lack of governance have been well documented This book is a powerful indictment of the current consensus on how to deal with these challenges Pieterse argues that the current shelter for all and urban good governance policies treat only the symptoms not the causes of the problem Instead he claims there is an urgent need to reinvigorate civil society in these cities to encourage radical democracy economic resilience social resistance and environmental sustainability folded into the everyday concerns of marginalised people Providing a dynamic picture of a cosmopolitan urban citizenship this book is an essential guide to one of the new century's greatest challenges Violence and Post-war Reconstruction Christina

Steenkamp,2009-05-30 The uncomfortable truth about peace accords is that often they do not bring about a real and lasting peace while the conflict is officially over civilians still live with the daily threat of violence It is generally assumed that this does not pose a threat to the peace process yet the author shows how in reality violence that occurs at this time and within this context has a unique potential to cause damage In this much needed and pioneering study the author shows the impact of continuing physical insecurity upon the postwar reconstruction process Examining the type of violence when it occurs and the identity of those who commit it she reveals the serious implications for the reconstruction of state polity and society and for the quality of peace that emerges She shows how the use of violence to address everyday problems becomes increasingly acceptable explores the use of violence by organized groups in society and pays particular attention to civilian reactions to post accord insecurity In a final chapter she identifies a range of important considerations for the better understanding of a vital yet often neglected aspect of postwar reconstruction New South African Keywords Nick Shepherd,Steven

Robins,Steven L. Robins,2008 New South African Keywords sets out to do two things The first is to provide a guide to the key words and key concepts that have come to shape public and political thought and debate in South Africa since 1994 The second purpose is to provide a compendium of cutting edge thinking on the new society In this respect some of the most exciting thinkers and commentators on South Africa have tried to capture the complexity of current debates The result is a concise and insightful guide to postapartheid South Africa which should be useful to students citizens tourists business managers decision makers in fact to anyone wanting to make sense of South African society today Assessing the Impact of Transitional Justice Hugo Van der Merwe,Victoria Baxter,Audrey R. Chapman,2009 In Assessing the Impact of Transitional Justice fourteen leading researchers study seventy countries that have suffered from autocratic rule genocide and protracted internal conflict Nadine Gordimer and the Rhetoric of Otherness in Post-Apartheid South Africa

Maria-Luiza Caraivan,2017-01-06 Nadine Gordimer and the Rhetoric of Otherness in Post Apartheid South Africa observes and examines several issues that are central to the South African writer's works the uniqueness of terror in a difficult historical period the desire to annihilate racial oppression and above all the psychological alienation provoked by racism The analysis also focuses on literary topics that are specific to Gordimer's post Apartheid writings such as the significance of multiculturalism the status of writers the banalisation of violence due to mass media coverage the reconciliation with a violent past globalization and loss of cultural and national identity economic exile and migration The book proposes in five chapters a journey into Nadine Gordimer's novels short stories and non fiction that presents the reader with a multifaceted Other who is no longer specific to postcolonial and multicultural South Africa but can be identified across the globe as alterity is redefined by globalization

Justice in Transition Anna Eriksson,2013-05-13 This book provides a unique account of the high profile community based restorative justice projects in the Republican and Loyalist communities that have emerged with the ending of the conflict in Northern Ireland Unprecedented new partnerships between Republican communities and the Police Service of Northern Ireland have developed and former IRA and UVF combatants and political ex prisoners have been amongst those involved Community restorative justice projects have been central to these groundbreaking changes acting as both facilitator and transformer Based on an extensive range of interviews with key players in this process many of them former combatants and unique access to the different community projects this book tells a fascinating story At the same time this book explores the wider implications for restorative justice internationally highlighting the important lessons for partnerships between police and community in other jurisdictions particularly in the high crime alienated neighbourhoods which exist in most western societies as well as transitional ones It also offers a critical analysis of the roles of both community and state and the tensions around the ownership of justice and a critical unromanticized assessment of the role of restorative justice in the community

Entrepreneurship in Policing and Criminal Contexts Robert Smith,2021-03-25 Entrepreneurship in Policing and Criminal Contexts explores the contemporary and under researched themes of entrepreneurial policing and entrepreneurialism in criminal justice contexts which are emerging topics of both theoretical and practical interest in the current rapidly changing criminal justice environment

Prison Writing and the Literary World Michelle Kelly,Claire Westall,2020-10-27 Prison Writing and the Literary World tackles international prison writing and writing about imprisonment in relation to questions of literary representation and formal aesthetics the value or values of literature textual censorship and circulation institutional networks and literary critical methodologies It offers scholarly essays exploring prison writing in relation to wartime internment political imprisonment resistance and independence creation regimes of terror and personal narratives of development and awakening that grapple with race class and gender Cutting across geospatial divides while drawing on nation and region specific expertise it asks readers to connect the questions examples and challenges arising from prison writing and writing about imprisonment within the UK and the USA but also across continental Europe Stalinist Russia the Americas Africa and the Middle East It also includes critical reflection pieces from authors editors educators and theatre practitioners with experience of the fraught testing and potentially inspiring links between prison and the literary world

Race, Ethnicity, Crime, and Justice Shaun L. Gabbidon,2009-03-10 Congratulations to SAGE author Shaun L Gabbidon for becoming the second scholar in the college's history to be named a Distinguished Professor by the University's Office of the President

Pennsylvania State University Harrisburg Gabbidon's book provides a sobering account of racism inequality and injustice framed by processes of colonisation the effects of which are still widely felt in many postcolonial contexts It will greatly assist teachers and students interested in comparative research and analysis in this area Dr Coretta Phillips London School of Economics and Political Science The author does a great job at identifying the nature and scope of the race crime relationship The race relations analysis within the selected countries provide a great historical context particularly for students who are unfamiliar with the role of race and ethnicity in criminal justice processing Dr Patricia Warren Florida State University Providing case studies from English speaking countries around the world Race Ethnicity Crime and Justice An International Dilemma focuses on the racial ethnic justice related challenges faced by Great Britain the United States Canada Australia and South Africa Shaun L Gabbidon's insightful text begins with chapters that introduce the international nature of race ethnicity issues grounding students in important theory and concepts and then provides full chapter coverage of the race and crime issues of each specific region Key Features Presents a brief historical overview current population characteristics criminal justice statistics and a synopsis of the racial and ethnic justice related concerns for each region followed by a review of the scholarly literature on the topic Compares and contrasts the race ethnicity crime and justice issues of specific countries Includes a closing chapter that summarizes the findings from the various countries and discusses prospects for the eventual elimination of the international dilemma of race ethnicity crime and justice Race Ethnicity Crime and Justice An International Dilemma can be used as a main or supplementary text for courses focusing on race and crime minorities and crime and diversity in criminal justice It is also appropriate for use in sociology and ethnic studies courses that focus on race and crime

Security Beyond the State Rita Abrahamsen, Michael C. Williams, 2010-11-18 Across the globe from mega cities to isolated resource enclaves the provision and governance of security takes place within assemblages that are de-territorialized in terms of actors technologies norms and discourses They are embedded in a complex transnational architecture defying conventional distinctions between public and private global and local Drawing on theories of globalization and late modernity along with insights from criminology political science and sociology Security Beyond the State maps the emergence of the global private security sector and develops a novel analytical framework for understanding these global security assemblages Through in-depth examinations of four African countries Kenya Nigeria Sierra Leone and South Africa it demonstrates how global security assemblages affect the distribution of social power the dynamics of state stability and the operations of the international political economy with significant implications for who gets secured and how in a global era

Dialogue in Places of Learning Adam Cooper, 2016-06-23 Showing how youth from one of the poorest and most violent neighborhoods in Cape Town South Africa learn differently in three educational contexts in classrooms in a community hip hop crew on a youth radio show this book illuminates how South African schools like schools elsewhere subtly reproduce inequalities by sorting students into social hierarchies linked to assessments of their use of language Highlighting the voices and perspectives of young South Africans this case study of youth in the global South explores how language is linked to cultural mixing which occurred during colonialism and slavery and continues through patterns of global mobility Dialogue in Places of Learning Youth Amplified in South Africa demonstrates how language and learning are bound to space and place Democracy, Good Governance and Development in Africa Mawere, Munyaradzi, Mwanaka, Tendai R., 2015-10-24 Questions surrounding democracy governance and development especially in the view of Africa have provoked acrimonious debates in the past few years It remains a perennial question why some decades after political independence in Africa the continent continues experiencing bad governance lagging behind socioeconomically and its democracy questionable We admit that a plethora of theories and reasons including iniquitous and malicious ones have been conjured in an attempt to explain and answer the questions as to why Africa seems to be lagging behind other continents in issues pertaining to good governance democracy and socio economic development Yet none of the theories and reasons proffered so far seems to have provided enduring solutions to Africa s diverse complex problems and predicaments This book dissects and critically examines the matrix of Africa s multifaceted problems on governance democracy and development in an attempt to proffer enduring solutions to the continent s long standing political and socio economic dilemmas and setbacks
