evolving and multifaceted online environment      Promoting Inclusion and Justice in University Teaching Teresa M. Cappiali, Johanne Jean-Pierre, 2024-05-02 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4.0 License. It is free to read, download, and share on Elgaronline thanks to generous funding support from Lund University. Promoting Inclusion and Justice in University Teaching offers a theoretical and practical contribution to ongoing debates concerning why and how we need to expand the goals of education in an increasingly diverse academia to enhance inclusivity and equity. It integrates a wide range of well-designed teaching activities grounded in the principles of transformative pedagogy into university settings to connect in-class teaching to social justice demands      Creating an Inclusive School Archana Singhal, Meeta Agrawal, 2024-08-07 This book addresses the urgent need to integrate children with special needs as equal participants in all educational levels for their holistic development. It outlines strategies to foster inclusion by adapting standard school practices to accommodate children who vary socially, mentally, or physically from their peers. Covering a broad range of special needs, the book identifies key types of physical, behavioral, and mental challenges and highlights the learning needs of marginalized children. Emphasizing diverse teaching and assessment methods, it aligns with the Rights of Persons with Disabilities Act 2016 and serves as a valuable reference for B.Ed, M.Ed, M.A. Education, and diploma courses in Education      Inclusive Practice for Learning Support Assistants Zoe Hosier, 2025-07-30 Inclusive Practice for Learning Support Assistants explores the role of the LSA and drawing from first-hand interviews, sheds light on a variety of LSA experiences and perspectives, detailing the often-hidden aspects of their work to support the learning of special educational needs and neurodivergent students. Covering key areas including wellbeing, support, challenging behaviour, and student independence, chapters provide LSAs with practical tips and reflective insights to improve their work supporting children and young people in schools. Explore dialogic education and assistive technologies with much-needed reflection opportunities. Include guidance on working with students one-to-one as well as in small groups. Offer advice on how LSAs and teachers can foster strong working relationships in class. This informative and accessible guide will give both new starter and more experienced LSAs a strong and holistic understanding of the role of inclusive practice and where they can really make a difference for their students. It will be valuable reading for LSAs as well as the teachers and SENCOs who work closely with them      Using Narratives and Storytelling to Promote Cultural Diversity on College Campuses Bledsoe, T. Scott, Setterlund, Kimberly A., 2020-07-10 Stories offer opportunities for listeners to merge the storyteller's experiences with their own, resulting in connections that can turn into life-changing experiences. As listeners and storytellers, it is imperative that we look more closely at the stories and narratives that shape our lives. Using Narratives and Storytelling to Promote Cultural Diversity on College Campuses is an essential research publication that offers a framework for identifying culture-based narratives. The book follows five college students through a vast array of divergent experiences and provides a comprehensive dialogue about diversity through personal narratives of college faculty, students, staff, and administrators.
