Ideal Worlds New Romanticism In Contemporary Art:

Ideal worlds, new Romanticism in contemporary art, 2005      Film Landscapes Graeme Harper, Jonathan Rayner, 2014-08-26 This book brings together critical and theoretical essays examining the connections between films and landscapes It showcases the work of established and emerging academics whose research probes the complex relationships between moving images and the filmed environment and accounts for the impactful effects of viewing lived spaces and human places on screen The essays in this collection actively engage with examples of contemporary popular and art cinema genre films and auteur canon historical films propaganda documentary and animation in their explorations of the meanings with which filmed landscapes are endowed and invested The breadth of the study is matched by the depth of the interest with writers here approaching the subject of film landscapes as critics as film practitioners and as teachers of film studies and film making Film Landscapes gives voice to a great many ideas and includes coverage of a great many films but it also points forward to ways in which we might revisit discussions of the environments of film and consider ways in which history and creativity critical understanding and the interaction of human beings and place could be reconsidered and revised to produce new insights      The Gothic in Contemporary British Trauma Fiction Ashlee Joyce, 2019-09-05 This book examines the intersection of trauma and the Gothic in six contemporary British novels Martin Amis's London Fields Margaret Drabble's The Gates of Ivory Ian McEwan's Atonement Pat Barker's Regeneration and Double Vision and Kazuo Ishiguro's Never Let Me Go In these works the Gothic functions both as an expression of societal violence at the turn of the twenty first century and as a response to the related crisis of representation brought about by the contemporary individual's highly mediated and spectatorial relationship to this violence By locating these six novels within the Gothic tradition this work argues that each text to borrow a term from Jacques Derrida participates in the Gothic in ways that both uphold the paradigm of unspeakability that has come to dominate much trauma fiction as well as push its boundaries to complicate how we think of the ethical relationship between witnessing and writing trauma      Romantic Legacies Shun-Liang Chao, John Michael Corrigan, 2019-03-06 Romantic Legacies Transnational and Transdisciplinary Contexts presents the most wide ranging treatment of Romantic regenerations covering the cross pollination between the arts or between art and thought within or across the borders of Germany Britain France the US Russia India China and Japan Each chapter in the volume examines a legacy or afterlife in a comparative context to demonstrate ongoing Romantic legacies as fully as possible in their complexity and richness The volume provides readers a lens through which to understand Romanticism not merely as an artistic heritage but as a dynamic site of intellectual engagement that crosses nations and time periods and entails no less than the shaping of our global cultural currents      The Last Days of Pompeii Victoria C. Gardner Coates, Kenneth D. S. Lapatin, Jon L. Seydl, Cleveland Museum of Art, Musée national des beaux-arts du Québec, 2012 Destroyed yet paradoxically preserved by the eruption of Mount Vesuvius in a d 79 Pompeii and other nearby sites are usually considered places where we can most directly experience the daily lives of ancient Romans This book explores Pompeii as a modern obsession in which the Vesuvian sites function as mirrors of the present It is a fascinating survey of the modern obsession with the destruction of Pompeii as seen through the eyes of artists Destroyed yet paradoxically preserved by the eruption of Mount Vesuvius in a d 79 Pompeii and other nearby sites are usually considered places where we can most directly experience the daily lives of ancient Romans Rather than present these sites as windows to the past The Last Days of Pompeii explores Pompeii as a modern obsession in which the Vesuvian sites function as mirrors of the present Through cultural appropriation and projection outstanding visual and literary artists of the last three centuries have made the ancient catastrophe their own expressing contemporary concerns in diverse media from paintings prints and sculpture to theatrical performances photography and film This lavishly illustrated volume featuring the works of artists such as Fragonard Kaufmann Duchamp Dali and Warhol surveys the legacy of Pompeii in the modern imagination

Computer Games As Landscape Art Peter Nelson, 2023-08-31 This book proposes that computer games are the paradigmatic form of contemporary landscape and offers a synthesis of art history geography game studies and play Like paint on canvas the game engine is taken as the underlying medium and using the Valve Source Engine as the primary case study it analyses landscapes according to the technical economic and cultural features this medium affords It presents the single player first person shooter Half Life 2 as a Promethean safari examines how the economics of gambling and product placement shaped the eSports landscapes of Counter Strike and reveals how sandboxes such as Garry's Mod visualise the radical landscape of Web 2.0 This book explores how our relationship to the environment is changing how we express this through computer games and how we can move beyond examining artistic influences on games to examining how historical connections flow through games and the history of landscape images

Owens, Laura Scott Rothkopf, 2017-01-01 A richly illustrated expansive mid career survey of the stand out American artist's pioneering and influential work with each copy featuring a unique silk screen cover printed in Owens's studio Since the early 1990s Laura Owens b 1970 has challenged traditional assumptions about figuration and abstraction in her pioneering approach to painting Created in close collaboration with the artist on the occasion of her mid career survey at the Whitney Museum of American Art this inventive and comprehensive book features an incisive introduction by Scott Rothkopf critical essays literary texts and short commentaries on a variety of subjects related to Owens's broad interests which range from folk art and needlework to comics and wallpaper Reflections by more than twenty of Owens's fellow artists collaborators assistants dealers family members and friends offer an array of perspectives on her work at different periods in her life beginning with her high school years in Ohio and ending with her current exhibition A rich trove of more than a thousand images drawn from the artist's personal archive and largely unpublished before now includes personal correspondence journals academic transcripts handwritten notes source material exhibition announcements clippings and installation photographs Strikingly each copy also features a unique silk screen cover printed in Owens's studio

Supplanting the Postmodern David Rudrum,Nicholas Stavris,2015-09-24 For more than a decade now a steadily growing chorus of voices has announced that the postmodern literature art thought and culture of the late 20th century have come to an end At the same time as this the early years of the 21st century have seen a stream of critical formulations proclaiming a successor to postmodernism Intriguing and exciting new terms such as remodernism performatism hypermodernism automodernism renewalism altermodernism digimodernism and metamodernism have been coined proposed and debated as terms for what comes after the postmodern Supplanting the Postmodern is the first anthology to collect the key writings in these debates in one place The book is divided into two parts the first The Sense of an Ending presents a range of positions in the debate around the demise of the postmodern the second Coming to Terms with the New presents representative writings from the new isms mentioned above Each of the entries is prefaced by a brief introduction by the editors in which they outline its central ideas point out the similarities and or differences from other positions found in the anthology and suggest possible strengths and limitations to the insights presented in each piece

Photographic Realism Kieran Cashell,2020-10-15 One of the most captivating and provocative artists of the Sensation generation Richard Billingham b 1970 came to prominence in the late 1990s with his visceral photobook Ray's a Laugh a slice of everyday life in a high rise sink estate in the British West Midlands This book is the first comprehensive discussion of Billingham's art practice Articulating the socio historical aesthetic geographical as well as anthropological aspects of Billingham's art the book situates his work within the British neorealist tradition in visual art cinema and televisual culture Beginning with the first photographic studies of his father in the early 1990s Cashell argues that these sympathetic haunting images prefigure the later development of his thematic concerns Significant consideration is also given to Billingham's cinematic oeuvre including his recent feature length autobiographical film Ray Liz which substantially clarifies the complex continuity of his developing aesthetic vision Illustrated throughout with colour and black and white reproductions Photographic Realism The Art of Richard Billingham combines investigative research with interviews and studio conversations providing a subtle and sophisticated critical evaluation of the artist's key photographic and film based works from the 1990s to the present

Damaged Romanticism Terrie Sultan,2008 Features contemporary works of art that capture the existential dilemma of the human condition

Transnational Horror Across Visual Media Dana Och,Kirsten Strayer,2013-10-15 This volume investigates the horror genre across national boundaries including locations such as Africa Turkey and post Soviet Russia and different media forms illustrating the ways that horror can be theorized through the circulation reception and production of transnational media texts Perhaps more than any other genre horror is characterized by its ability to be simultaneously aware of the local while able to permeate national boundaries to function on both regional and international registers The essays here explore political models and allegories questions of cult or subcultural media and their distribution practices the relationship between regional or cultural networks and the legibility of international horror iconography across distinct media The book underscores how a discussion of contemporary international horror is not only about genre but about how genre can inform theories of visual cultures and the increasing permeability of their borders
