The Scrapbook

When Aunt Rose got sick and went to the hospital, Misha and his little sister Emily were both very upset. She was their favorite aunt. She often brought them books and entertained them with stories about when she was young.

Misha decided to make a scrapbook for Aunt Rose. Emily felt jealous of his idea. It seemed to her that Misha always thought of everything first and could do it better. She wanted to do something too, but her ideas didn't seem as interesting as Misha's. Misha offered to let her help, but she refused.

For the next few days, Misha worked on Aunt Rose's scrapbook. He wrote a poem, and he drew pictures. He chose favorite family snapshots. He put everything into the scrapbook. He decorated the pages with some of his favorite stickers.

Emily, meanwhile, spent a lot of time sulking. Whenever Misha tried to talk to her, she turned on her heel and walked away.

On the day they had planned to visit Aunt Rose, Misha stormed into the kitchen.

"Where's my scrapbook?" he said accusingly to Emily. She burst into tears.

"I took it," she sobbed. "I want it to be from me too."

Misha put his arm around Emily and hugged her. Emily said she was sorry. Misha told Emily to hurry and get ready to go so they could give Aunt Rose their scrapbook together.
