Identity Citizenship And Political Conflict In Africa:

Identity, Citizenship, and Political Conflict in Africa Edmond J. Keller, 2014 Reflecting on the processes of nation building and citizenship formation in Africa Edmond J Keller believes that although some deep parochial identities have eroded they have not disappeared and may be more assertive than previously thought especially in instances of political conflict Keller reconsiders how national identity has been understood in Africa and presents new approaches to identity politics intergroup relations state society relations and notions of national citizenship and citizenship rights Focusing on Nigeria Ethiopia Cote d Ivoire Kenya and Rwanda he lays the foundation for a new understanding of political transition in contemporary Africa

Identity, Citizenship, and Political Conflict in Africa Edmond J. Keller, 2020-03-04 Engaging detailed with current information about the situation in many African countries African Studies Quarterly Reflecting on the processes of nation building and citizenship formation in Africa Edmond J Keller believes that although some deep parochial identities have eroded they have not disappeared and may be more assertive than previously thought especially in instances of political conflict Keller reconsiders how national identity has been understood in Africa and presents new approaches to identity politics intergroup relations state society relations and notions of national citizenship and citizenship rights Focusing on Nigeria Ethiopia Cote d Ivoire Kenya and Rwanda he lays the foundation for a new understanding of political transition in contemporary Africa This book would certainly be useful in graduate seminars on African politics African history or ethnic politics It is written in a clear straightforward style that also makes it appropriate for use in advanced undergraduate classes Keller also offers insights for policymakers and development practitioners who continue to grapple with the real world consequences of citizenship conflicts Journal of Modern African Studies

Mobility, Identity and Conflict Resolution in Africa John Mushomi, Cori Wielenga, 2024-07-16 This volume examines land and resource contestations in the East African Albertine region where Uganda the Democratic Republic of Congo Rwanda Burundi and Tanzania intersect It is one of the most biodiverse regions on the continent and became highly contested when Uganda discovered oil there in 2006 The resource contestation in this region has resulted in ongoing conflict and has defined and re defined identity and citizenship Contributors of this volume succinctly bring out the major forces that have been responsible for resource contestations and conflicts together with an emphasis on the existing mechanisms for peaceful co existence particularly in relation to alternative dispute resolution mechanisms within indigenous knowledge systems

Citizenship, Belonging, and Political Community in Africa Emma Hunter, 2016-09-15 Africa it is often said is suffering from a crisis of citizenship At the heart of the contemporary debates this apparent crisis has provoked lie dynamic relations between the present and the past between political theory and political practice and between legal categories and lived experience Yet studies of citizenship in Africa have often tended to foreshorten historical time and privilege the present at the expense of the deeper past Citizenship Belonging and Political Community in Africa provides a critical reflection on citizenship in Africa by bringing together scholars working with very different case studies and with very different understandings of what is meant by citizenship By bringing historians and social scientists into dialogue within the same volume it argues that a revised reading of the past can offer powerful new perspectives on the present in ways that might also indicate new paths for the future The project collects the works of up and coming and established scholars from around the globe Presenting case studies from such wide ranging countries as Sudan Mauritius South Africa Cote d'Ivoire and Ethiopia the essays delve into the many facets of citizenship and agency as they have been expressed in the colonial and postcolonial eras In so doing they engage in exciting ways with the watershed book in the field Mahmood Mamdani's Citizen and Subject Contributors Samantha Balaton Chrimes Frederick Cooper Solomon M Gofie V Adefemi Isumonah Cherry Leonardi John Lonsdale Eghosa E Osaghae Ramola Ramtohul Aidan Russell Nicole Ulrich Chris Vaughan and Henri Michel Y r

The Origins of Ethnic Conflict in Africa Tsega Etefa, 2019-02-01 From Darfur to the Rwandan genocide journalists policymakers and scholars have blamed armed conflicts in Africa on ancient hatreds or competition for resources Here Tsega Etefa compares three such cases the Darfur conflict between Arabs and non Arabs the Gumuz and Oromo clashes in Western Oromia and the Oromo Pokomo conflict in the Tana Delta in order to offer a fuller picture of how ethnic violence in Africa begins Diverse communities in Sudan Ethiopia and Kenya alike have long histories of peacefully sharing resources intermarrying and resolving disputes As he argues ethnic conflicts are fundamentally political conflicts driven by non inclusive political systems the monopolization of state resources and the manipulation of ethnicity for political gain coupled with the lack of democratic mechanisms for redressing grievances

The Roots of Ethnic Conflict in Africa Wanjala S. Nasong'o, 2016-01-26 This book focuses on the problem of ethnic conflict in Africa and seeks to explain its root causes The main thesis of the book is that ethnic political mobilization is essentially a function of deeply felt grievances on the part of the groups so mobilized

Citizenship in Africa Bronwen Manby, 2018-11-29 Citizenship in Africa provides a comprehensive exploration of nationality laws in Africa placing them in their theoretical and historical context It offers the first serious attempt to analyse the impact of nationality law on politics and society in different African states from a trans continental comparative perspective Taking a four part approach Parts I and II set the book within the framework of existing scholarship on citizenship from both sociological and legal perspectives and examine the history of nationality laws in Africa from the colonial period to the present day Part III considers case studies which illustrate the application and misapplication of the law in practice and the relationship of legal and political developments in each country Finally Part IV explores the impact of the law on politics and its relevance for questions of identity and belonging today concluding with a set of issues for further research Ambitious in scope and compelling in analysis this is an important new work on citizenship in Africa

Conflict Management and Resolution in South Sudan Nelson Alusala, Emmaculate Asige Liaga, Martin Revai Rupiya, 2023-08-08 This book analyses the main events and turning points in the building of pre and post independent South Sudan It covers the historical perspectives of the country its key political mediation and negotiation processes peace and security socio economic development and gender as well as conflict and reconstruction Many African states are products of compromised peace settlements and power sharing agreements following violent and protracted conflicts between colonial occupying powers armed groups and nation states This is the same route that Africa s youngest nation South Sudan traversed before attaining independence in July 2011 This edited volume is an innovative collection that serves as a complete reading on South Sudan from the pre independent to post independent realities of the political military and inter ethnic conflicts and the negotiations to resolve them It is a step by step account of the major events that mark the history as well as the contemporary occurrences in South Sudan The book offers guidance on how to sustainably end armed conflict in Africa by tackling four broad themes that include the historical analysis of the conflict political issues peace and security and gender justice and contemporary dynamics The book presents a gendered approach to arguments while also reflecting gender equity in terms of the book authorship Academics researchers and specialists in the field of conflict management and resolution as well as security studies will find this book useful

Revisiting EU-Africa Relations in a Changing World Fargion, Valeria, Gazibo, Mamoudou, 2021-09-07 This timely book explores the current state of EU Africa relations from a multidisciplinary perspective placing emphasis on recent developments in five areas that are crucial for EU Africa relations development cooperation trade migration security and democratization It considers how Africa s dependence on the EU has decreased due to the declining importance of development cooperation and increasing cooperation with emerging powers notably the BRIC nations

The Oxford Handbook of Nigerian Politics A. Carl LeVan, Patrick Ukata, 2018-10-18 The Oxford Handbook of Nigerian Politics offers a comprehensive analysis of Nigeria s very rich history and ever changing politics to its readers It provides a deep understanding of Nigeria s socio political evolution and experience by covering broad range of political issues and historical eras The volume encompasses 44 chapters organized thematically into essays covering history political institutions civil society economic and social policy identity and insecurity and Nigeria in a globalized world By identifying many of the classic debates in Nigerian politics the chapters serve as an authoritative introduction to Africa s most populous country The chapters are interdisciplinary introducing readers to classic debates and key research on Nigeria as well as new methodologies new data and a compelling corpus of research questions for the next generation of researchers and readers interested in Africa

Development, (Dual) Citizenship and Its Discontents in Africa Robtel Neajai Pailey, 2021-01-07 Drawing on rich oral histories from over two hundred in depth interviews in West Africa Europe and North America Robtel Neajai Pailey examines socio economic change in Liberia Africa s first black republic through the prism of citizenship Marking how historical policy changes on citizenship and contemporary public discourse on dual citizenship have impacted development policy and practice she reveals that as Liberia transformed from a country of immigration to one of emigration so too did the nature of citizenship thus influencing claims for and against dual citizenship In this engaging contribution to scholarly and policy debates about citizenship as a continuum of inclusion and exclusion and development as a process of both amelioration and degeneration Pailey develops a new model for conceptualising citizenship within the context of crisis affected states In doing so she offers a postcolonial critique of the neoliberal framing of diasporas and donors as the panacea to post war reconstruction      The Negritude Movement Reiland Rabaka,2015-05-20 The Negritude Movement provides readers with not only an intellectual history of the Negritude Movement but also its prehistory W E B Du Bois the New Negro Movement and the Harlem Renaissance and its posthistory Frantz Fanon and the evolution of Fanonism By viewing Negritude as an insurgent idea to invoke this book s intentionally incendiary subtitle as opposed to merely a form of poetics and aesthetics The Negritude Movement explores Negritude as a traveling theory la Edward Said s concept that consistently crisscrossed the Atlantic Ocean in the twentieth century from Harlem to Haiti Haiti to Paris Paris to Martinique Martinique to Senegal and on and on ad infinitum The Negritude Movement maps the movements of proto Negritude concepts from Du Bois s discourse in The Souls of Black Folk through to post Negritude concepts in Fanon s Black Skin White Masks and The Wretched of the Earth Utilizing Negritude as a conceptual framework to on the one hand explore the Africana intellectual tradition in the twentieth century and on the other hand demonstrate discursive continuity between Du Bois and Fanon as well as the Harlem Renaissance and Negritude Movement The Negritude Movement ultimately accents what Negritude contributed to arguably its greatest intellectual heir Frantz Fanon and the development of his distinct critical theory Fanonism Rabaka argues that if Fanon and Fanonism remain relevant in the twenty first century then to a certain extent Negritude remains relevant in the twenty first century      Political Economy of Resource, Human Security and Environmental Conflicts in Africa Kelechi Johnmary Ani,Victor Ojakorotu,Kelvin Bribena,2021-08-31 This book shows the push and pull effects between resources human security and conflicts in Africa It recognizes the need for resources in Africa to be processed into finished goods in order to influence global market and redefine the pattern of trade relations with powerful countries of Asia America and Europe in shaping the destiny and future of African countries The achievement of this laudable objective is plagued by the security challenges which are directly or indirectly linked to resource related conflicts rocking most of the resource endowed countries in the continent thereby threatening global peace and security To deal with this menace in the continent it requires global co operation and support of foreign governments international organizations international non government organizations governments of host countries and its citizens The book presents the cases and experiences of countries that are endowed with resource as well as have experienced different forms of human insecurity and have witnessed environmental conflicts in its analysis which make the discourse interesting and quite educating

Democracy in Ghana Jeffrey W. Paller,2019-03-07 A detailed account of politics in Ghana s urban neighborhoods providing a new way to understand African democracy and development      Understanding Boko Haram James J. Hentz,Hussein Solomon,2017-05-08 The primary objective of this book is to understand the nature of the Boko Haram insurgency in northeast Nigeria Boko Haram's goal of an Islamic Caliphate starting in the Borno State in the North East that will eventually cover the areas of the former Kanem Borno Empire is a rejection of the modern state system forced on it by the West The central theme of this volume examines the relationship between the failure of the state building project in Nigeria and the outbreak and nature of insurgency At the heart of the Boko Haram phenomenon is a country racked with cleavages making it hard for Nigeria to cohere as a modern state Part I introduces this theme and places the Boko Haram insurgency in a historical context There are however multiple cleavages in Nigeria ethnic regional cultural and religious and Part II examines the different state society dynamics fuelling the conflict Political grievances are common to every society however what gives Boko Haram the space to express such grievances through violence Importantly this volume demonstrates that the insurgency is in fact a reflection of the hollowness within Nigeria's overall security Part III looks at the responses to Boko Haram by Nigeria neighbouring states and external actors For Western actors Boko Haram is seen as part of the global war on terror and the fact that it has pledged allegiance to ISIS encourages this framing However as the chapters here discuss this is an over simplification of Boko Haram and the West needs to address the multiple dimension of Boko Haram This book will be of much interest to students of terrorism and political violence insurgencies African politics war and conflict studies and IR in general

The Democratic Republic of the Congo, Broken State, Collapse of Law, Human Rights Violations, Veil of Injustice and Constitutional Smokescreens—A Case Study in State Failure: Felix Kaputu, 2024-07-25

For over twenty five years the Democratic Republic of the Congo has been depicted by the media as a nation in turmoil Armed militias and armies ravage villages stealing crops and minerals while proxy wars displace countless citizens Political violence corruption and social insecurity plague the nation leading to a humanitarian crisis where fundamental human rights are routinely violated This book delves into the harrowing realities of life in Congo where public education and healthcare are in shambles and most people live on less than two dollars a day Amidst this political leaders enjoy exorbitant salaries while public servants endure poverty This empirical research critically examines the gap between the constitutional provisions of human rights and their implementation presenting stark indicators of a failed state By analyzing the human rights situation from the Universal Declaration of Human Rights to the current state Constitution the book reveals the Congo's descent into chaos and calls for accountability for its violations

Education Marginalization in Sub-Saharan Africa
Obed Mfum-Mensah, 2018-08-15 This book focuses on education policy framework for educating marginalized children in sub Saharan Africa It uses marginality as a critical discourse to highlight the complicated ways education policy making in sub Saharan Africa have constructed and perpetuated marginality in the region since Africa's encounters with Europe The book is organized around two parts each of which discusses a specific dimension of the marginality and education policy nexus Part I focuses on theorizations of marginality and education The theoretical framework on marginality and education outlines the definitional and conceptual backgrounds on marginality the complicated ways policies of the Christian missionaries colonial governments and postcolonial governments constructed and perpetuated marginality in the region Part II focuses on addressing the issue of marginality from theory to practice These chapters highlight the ways policies shaped the educational development schooling processes and educational outcomes of selected marginalized communities and groups Attention is given to schooling in rural communities the complexities of girls education in rural contexts education of Zongo Muslim communities violence in school in rural contexts and education collaboration in rural traditional communities The book argues that education policies in sub Saharan Africa fail to address the educational needs of marginalized children because current policy frameworks are not based on examination of colonial policies which created the existing marginality In order to implement policies that address policy gaps and meet the educational needs of marginalized children strong synergies are necessary between education policy makers other education stakeholders and marginalized communities

Unconquered States H. E. Chehabi, David Motadel, 2024-11-25 In the heyday of empire most of the world was ruled directly or indirectly by the European powers Unconquered States explores the struggles for sovereignty of the few nominally independent non Western states in the imperial age It examines the ways in which countries such as China Ethiopia Japan the Ottoman Empire Persia and Siam managed to keep European imperialism at bay whereas others such as Hawaii Korea Madagascar Morocco and Tonga long struggled but ultimately failed to maintain their sovereignty The chapters in this book address four major aspects of the relations these countries had with the Western imperial powers armed conflict and military reform unequal treaties and capitulations diplomatic encounters and royal diplomacy Bringing together scholars from five continents this book provides the first comprehensive global history of the engagement of the independent non European states with the European empires reshaping our understanding of sovereignty territoriality and hierarchy in the modern world order

African Politics Ian Taylor, 2018-09-20 Africa is a continent of 54 countries and over a billion people However despite the rich diversity of the African experience it is striking that continuations and themes seem to be reflected across the continent particularly south of the Sahara Questions of underdevelopment outside exploitation and misrule are characteristic of many if not most states in Sub Saharan Africa In this Very Short Introduction Ian Taylor explores how politics is practiced on the African continent considering the nature of the state in Sub Saharan Africa and why its state structures are generally weaker than elsewhere in the world Exploring the historical and contemporary factors which account for Africa's underdevelopment he also analyses why some African countries suffer from high levels of political violence while others are spared Unveiling the ways in which African state and society actually function beyond the formal institutional facade Taylor discusses how external factors both inherited and contemporary act upon the continent ABOUT THE SERIES The Very Short Introductions series from Oxford University Press contains hundreds of titles in almost every subject area These pocket sized books are the perfect way to get ahead in a new subject quickly Our expert authors combine facts analysis perspective new ideas and enthusiasm to make interesting and challenging topics highly readable Contemporary Issues in African Society

George Klay Kieh, Jr., 2017-11-16 This book examines the twin critical processes of state building and nation building in Africa and the confluence of major domestic and global issues that shape them The book covers topics such as the expansive role of non governmental organizations the growing influence of charismatic Pentecostalism ethnic conflicts in East Africa the failure of the African Union's peacekeeping efforts in Sudan's Darfur region and Africa's expanding relations with the European Union It combines discussion of these frontier issues shaping contemporary African society with analysis from leading policy experts
