The Philosopher's Index, 1990 Vols for 1969 include a section of abstracts The First General Epistle of St. John the Apostle Unfolded and Applied Nathaniel Hardy, 1865 Informal Learning and Literacy among Maasai Women Taeko Takayanagi, 2019-09-05 Informal Learning and Literacy among Maasai Women highlights the importance and role of informal education in the emancipation and development of Maasai village women in Kenya At present knowledge and research on the impact of informal learning and literacy on community development is limited and there is a gap between policy level discussions and women s lived experiences Using a postcolonial feminist framework this book sets out to examine linkages between informal learning and literacy human development and gender inequality Despite improvements in recent years access to traditional education remains restricted for many women in rural communities across Kenya Takayangi s book is the first to introduce how Maasai village women utilise informal learning and literacy for collective empowerment as well as to sustain their own well being and that of their families It presents the perspectives of both local women and institutions and argues that women s learning is most effective when located within their own socio cultural and political discourses and when their voices are listened to and heard This ethnographic research study is a valuable resource that will contribute to the knowledge of literacy from both theoretical and practical perspectives It is an essential read for those studying or researching information education development studies and gender or education as well as for teachers community leaders and aid workers Hygeia, 1940 Frontiers in Cardiovascular Health Naranjan S. Dhalla, Arun Chockalingam, H. Ivan Berkowitz, Pawan K. Singal, 2012-12-06 The Frontiers in Cardiovascular Health varies between and within nations depend ing upon the level at which the battle is fought for better cardiovascular health According to the 1997 World Health Report 15 million deaths i e 30% of the total number of deaths were attributable to cardiovascular diseases and this number is on the rise The projection for the year 2020 is quite alarming with an expected cardiovascular mortality reaching 50 million Much of this burden is projected to occur in developing countries more specifically in the most populous countries of the world namely China and India These countries are already burdened with infectious and parasitic diseases and are trying to eradicate such diseases With increasing life expectancies people all over the world especially in developing coun tries are exposed to degenerative atherosclerosis resulting in increased cardiovascu lar mortality and morbidity In developing countries resources available for health care are very limited For example many of the African countries spend less than 10 per person per year on his her entire health care let alone cardiovascular health The average health care budget for nearly two thirds of the global population is well below 100 per year on a per capita basis Therefore in developing countries health promotion and primary prevention are the frontiers by necessity Improving awareness and health education is not only a matter of choice but is an absolute necessity Catalog of Copyright Entries.
