Van Anrooij, 2012-12-06 Perhaps Piet Creutzberg is and essentially always has been an artisan and an admirer of the best in craftsmanship The emphasis on the practical side of things seems to pervade whatever he undertook during half a century Anyway it is as a trader of the historical craft wielding a Chinese abacus or an electronic computing device that from about 1965 onwards an increasing number of younger students of Indonesian social economic and political history have met him in the depot of the 20th century colonial archives in The Hague or at the Royal Tropical Institute in Amsterdam Of the scores of Dutch Indonesian British Scandinavian German American Australian and Japanese historians he inspired and advised some were writing a master's thesis others had already made part of their academic career in Indonesian history or related topics but most of them were in the critical phases of collecting published or archival materials with a view to their incorporation in doctoral dissertations

The Difficult Flowering of Surinam Edward Dew, 2013-03-09 In the months immediately preceding Surinam's independence November 25 1975 warning signals went up on both sides of the Atlantic This small ethnically plural society was torn by severe political conflict Elections in November 1973 had brought an end to political collaboration between Creoles and Hindustanis the country's two largest ethnic groups and the Creoles now in control of the government were resolutely pushing over Hindustani opposition to sever their colonial ties with the Netherlands But defections from the Creole benches during the summer of 1975 had produced a virtual stalemate in the legislature heightening fears that the government would act unilaterally The failure of Creole and Hindustani leaders to resolve their differences led many observers in both the Netherlands and Surinam to predict a collapse of democracy and or violent conflict once independence was proclaimed Ironically the dramatic last minute resolution of the struggle precipitated not only general jubilation and relief but also self congratulation as the leaders of Surinam's multiethnic society long priding themselves on achievements in harmonious understanding pulled out all stops in their independence day oratory No one could forget the nightmare of the preceding few years But neither could anyone familiar with Surinam's historical develop
