stories some of which have never before been published in English He has written over twenty eight novels innumerable short stories poetry collections treatises and countless commentaries from literature to art and science not to mention culture and humanity and published in all of the available paper media of his time in Korea His writing style revolutionized Korean literature and the written language itself These stories abound with Buddhist themed meditations on matters of the human spirit and soul as well as his thoughts on overcoming karmic condemnations His consistency and the sincerity in his writing are such that one cannot help but believe that he practiced what he preached He was a moralist and his writing very didactic It is not surprising that he asserts that without religion one cannot improve one's character The last two short stories in this collection were written during the period from shortly before the end of the WWII to Korean Independence in 1948 The chaotic and uncertain situation of Korea along with harsh criticism forced him to remove himself to the countryside and to live on a farm like an ordinary farmer even maintaining an ox Around that time he also stayed in a temple by the grace of his cousin Yi Hak Su It was a time of meditation and refuge for him There he worked on his spiritual journey although he never wore a monk's robe He accumulated as many experiences as he could and then he decided to pursue further education Chang Wuk Kang M D translates these works beautifully richly capturing the essence of Yi Kwang Su's style and the culture of Korea He begins the compilation with a biographical summary of Yi Kwang Su's life as well as his political influences and literary impact on Korea 2016 Hardcover 214 pages

Building a Heaven on Earth Albert L. Park, 2014-12-31

Why and how did Korean religious groups respond to growing rural poverty social dislocation and the corrosion of culture caused by forces of modernization under strict Japanese colonial rule 1910-1945 Questions about religion's relationship and response to capitalism industrialization urbanization and secularization lie at the heart of understanding the intersection between colonialism religion and modernity in Korea Yet getting answers to these questions has been a challenge because of narrow historical investigations that fail to study religious processes in relation to political economic social and cultural developments In Building a Heaven on Earth Albert L. Park studies the progressive drives by religious groups to contest standard conceptions of modernity and forge a heavenly kingdom on the Korean peninsula to relieve people from fierce ruptures in their everyday lives The results of his study will reconfigure the debates on colonial modernity the origins of faith-based social activism in Korea and the role of religion in a modern world Building a Heaven on Earth in particular presents a compelling story about the determination of the Young Men's Christian Association YMCA the Presbyterian Church and the Ch'ndogyo to carry out large scale rural movements to form a paradise on earth anchored in religion agriculture and a pastoral life It is a transnational story of leaders from these three groups leaning on ideas and systems from countries such as Denmark France Japan and the United States to help them reform political economic social and cultural structures in colonial Korea This book shows that these religious institutions provided discursive and material frameworks that allowed for an alternative form of modernity that featured new forms of agency social organization and the nation In so doing Building a Heaven on Earth repositions our understandings of modern Korean history
