Kruispunten Op De Weg Der Kerk Zwingli De Labadie Kohlbrugge:

The Quest for the New Jerusalem, Jean de Labadie and the Labadists, 1610-1744 T.J. Saxby, 2012-12-06 The history of Jean de Labadie and the Labadists has received attention through the years That attention however has more often than not fallen short in its tracing of Labadie's double migration Disaffected with the established church order of his day and motivated by a sense of prophetic mission to establish again the life of the primitive church this spiritual nomad wandered from France to Switzerland then to the United Provinces Germany and Denmark according to the vicissitudes of the times As he went he changed his affiliations from high church ever lower from the bosom of Rome to Calvinism then to congregational separatism Thus there has been ample reason to treat Labadie's life and ministry episodically be it a geographical or denominational episode and a solid grounding could be had by piecing together several of these all listed in bibliography part D M de Certeau on the Jesuit years X de Bonnault d Houet on his stay at Amiens A L Bertrand on the lost years from Amiens to Montauban J H Gerlach and W Goeters on the schism at Middelburg P Scheltema on Amsterdam L Holscher and G E Guhrauer on Herford J Lieboldt and H von Schubert on Altona B B James and H C Murphy on the colony in Maryland L Knappert on that in Surinam and any number of authorities on the Labadists in Friesland Yet there are significant gaps

Be Renewed Willem van Vlastuin, 2014-02-19 Personal renewal or sanctification belongs to the heart of the Christian life and is becoming more important in our present day culture Listening to Scripture and in conversation with a variety of theologians from the protestant tradition the author presents an up to date concept for a theology of personal renewal In this concept the spiritual union with Christ unio mystica cum Christo is taken as the starting point in order to consider the way in which renewal obtains form in relation to God our neighbour ourselves and the world To place this concept into a historical perspective van Vlastuin begins his study with an investigation of Luther and Calvin's theology concerning the relationship between the union with Christ and personal renewal The concept is developed within the current theological debate with particular reference to the eschatological character of the Christian life An important issue concerns the measure of renewal especially in relation to the sinful heart of the believer In this context the author also deals with the question of sanctification as a position or a process and the relation between the two In addition the relationship between the Holy Spirit and the human soul in the process of renewal is discussed Another important issue concerns the abiding significance of the law and the way in which it functions in the Christian life The exploration of several theological positions leads to a modern concept by which to understand law The study concludes with an investigation of the relationship between the eschatological Christian life in this present life and the complete revelation of the eschaton Archivum Historicum Societatis Iesu
