Improving Instruction Through Supervision Evaluation And Professional Development:

Principals Improving Instruction Michael DiPaola, Wayne K. Hoy, 2013-05-01 This work integrates the core instructional leadership tasks of all principals supervision evaluation and professional development The text demonstrates a hands on approach grounded in sound theory and rigorous research It provides both a conceptual frame and realistic exercises that today s principals and supervisors can use to improve their practice The book highlights observation tools that focus on high yield instructional strategies Principals and supervisors are encouraged to collect data in classrooms and provide this instructional feedback so together with teachers they can reflect and identify areas for growth The models of supervision evaluation and professional development are research based and are consistent with contemporary challenges that confront principals and others committed to improving instruction

Improving Instruction Through Supervision, Evaluation, and Professional Development Michael DiPaola, Charles A. Wagner, 2018-02-01 In this second edition of Improving Instruction Through Supervision Evaluation and Professional Development we ve maintained the conceptual framework while updating sections to provide the most recent research on instructional strategies that have the most promise of helping all students learn Modifications of the law resulting from the reauthorization of the 50 year old Elementary and Secondary Education Act Every Student Succeeds Act ESSA 2015 and their implication for practice are embedded throughout this new edition Updated data collection tools for classroom observations are also provided We included a link to a website that contains all the observation tools in electronic format so that observers can have the opportunity to collect data on a tablet or laptop save the observation data as a PDF file and e mail those data to the teacher observed This new edition recognizes the reality that all principals are responsible for supervision evaluation and professional development of their teachers tasks that are neither simple nor without conflict The primary audience of this text is aspiring and practicing principals We hope to help them understand both the theory and practice of supervision evaluation and professional development However observing instruction collecting data for reflection and having conversations about teaching are not the sole provinces of principals Master teachers teacher leaders and teacher colleagues can also benefit from the supervisory sections of the book especially the chapters on high quality instruction improving instruction and the classroom data collecting tools The book provides numerous tools specifically designed to collect a variety of data in classrooms to improve instruction Embedded in each chapter are exercises to apply Theory into Practice by responding to a set of questions posed by the key issues of the chapter After the explication and illustration of the key concepts and principles of the chapter actual Instructional Leadership Challenges as described by a successful practicing principal for reflection and analysis performance The policy procedures and training required for board members to successfully implement a superintendent evaluation system The evaluation process proposed ensures fairness to the superintendent as well as providing accountability to the school district and community The focus of all evaluations should be on improved performance Evaluation is a means to an end The ultimate purpose of superintendent evaluation is improving individual performance in order to ensure quality services and programs to students Formative Assessment Leadership Karen L. Sanzo, Steve Myran, John

Caggiano, 2014-09-23 This exciting new book is for school leaders who are interested in transforming their school and district practices Discussing issues that impact students teachers within their classrooms and the larger school community Formative Assessment Leadership explores how leaders can implement effective professional development and positive change in their schools Breaking down formative assessment into manageable understandable parts the authors provide An exploration of what formative data based decision making looks like Scaffolding that enables school leaders to effectively integrate processes into their own school structure Discussion of potential barriers to success and how to overcome these challenges Practical examples that help ground the formative assessment leadership concepts A range of worksheets and templates to help implement formative assessment leadership in your schools Connecting Leadership with Learning

Michael A. Coplan, Michael S. Knapp, 2006-10-15 What kind of leadership makes learning possible for all students How can school leaders help teachers increase their knowledge and improve their instructional abilities What actions should leaders take to ensure that learning occurs In Connecting Leadership with Learning A Framework for Reflection Planning and Action Michael A Copland and Michael S Knapp give educational leaders a new way to answer these questions and find solutions perfect for their particular school environment Copland and Knapp assert that far too many educational leaders are struggling with outdated curricula demands that don't align with their school or district goals and professional meetings that are high on complaints but low on solutions Instead of prescribing a linear or rigid approach the authors encourage educators to be attentive and tune into their leadership actions by using the Leading for Learning Framework The framework provides different vantage points to help leaders reflect on their strengths and weaknesses plan for improvement and take actions to foster learning for students teachers and professionals and school and district leaders The Leading for Learning Framework will empower leaders to Establish a focus on equitable learning Build professional communities Engage communities and external partnerships Act strategically and share leadership Create coherence in their leadership actions The book includes extended case studies descriptions of 23 different leadership pathways and many examples from schools and districts that show the Leading for Learning Framework in action There is no magic formula for great school leadership but Copland and Knapp conclude that magic can happen when leaders reframe their efforts to focus more clearly on learning
