TESTAMENT CONTEXTUAL COMMENTARY Dr. Robert R. Seyda, 2024-05-16 Here John advises us that loving one another is not an option or a suggestion it is a commandment John doesn't want any believer to become like Adam and Eve's firstborn Cain That happened because Cain was under the influence of Satan This is therefore a warning not to mess with the world So what if they hate us We are bound for everlasting life in the presence of God That's why death has no power over us And that's why if our thoughts do not tell us that we are guilty we will not be afraid to come to God We can pray to God and we can ask Him to help us He will give us what we ask Him for That is because we obey His commands and we do the things that please Him Furthermore we should all love each other because God makes us able to love other people Everyone who loves other people confirms our claim to be a child of God If anyone says clearly that Jesus is the Son of God God lives in that person And that person lives together with God We know the kind of love that God has for us That's why if we love God we will not be afraid of Him So how do we know that we love God's children We know it when we love God and we do what He tells us to do Index to Book Reviews in Religion, 1996 Acts: An Exegetical Commentary : Volume 1 Craig S.

Alter, 2019-12-31 The keystone of Christianity is Jesus's physical bodily resurrection Present day scholars can be significantly challenged as they forage through voluminous documents on the resurrection of Jesus The literature measures well over seven thousand sources in English language books alone This makes finding specific sources that are most relevant for specific scholarly purposes an arduous task Even when a specific book is relevant finding the parts of the book that are most relevant to the resurrection rather than other topics often requires additional effort A Thematic Access Oriented Bibliography of Jesus s Resurrection addresses these challenges in several ways First the bibliography organizes more than seven thousand English sources into twelve main categories and then thirty four subcategories which are designed to help you find the most relevant literature quickly and efficiently Embedded are pro and con arguments which support efficient access through brief annotations and then annotate the diversity and complexity of the field of religion by including sources that represent a diverse range of views theistic e g Christian Jewish Muslim etc agnostic and nontheistic The objective of this bibliography is to provide convenient access to relevant sources from a variety of perspectives allowing you to browse or find the one source accurately and with ease
