Lulu and the Duck in the Park Hilary McKay, 2012-09-01 When Lulu finds a duck egg that has rolled out of its nest she takes it to class to keep it safe Lulu isn't allowed to bring pets to school But she's not really breaking the rules because it's just an egg Surely nothing bad will happen Lulu and the Duck in the Park - Literature Discovery Guide Kimberly Bredberg, 2018 Lulu and the Duck in the Park - Literature & Writing Guide Kimberly Bredberg, Sara Evans, 2023-03

Reaching Reluctant Young Readers Rob Reid, 2017-03-09 Reaching Reluctant Young Readers features 150 middle grade books Each profiled title has the potential to hook the reluctant reader and lure them to read the entire book To specifically encourage elementary and middle school age reluctant children to read there is first a pitch to get the reader's attention That is followed by a short reading passage to set the hook and encourage the young person to read the rest of the book on their own Further the book contains several hundred additional recommended titles The books selected for this collection were chosen following the criteria of reluctant reader books created by the Quick Picks committee sponsored by the Young Adult Library Services Association While these guidelines were designed for young adult books they also work well for middle grade books The criteria include clear writing no convoluted long sentences with sophisticated vocabulary high interest hook in the first few pages well defined characters interesting plot and familiar themes Reading the World's Stories Annette Y. Goldsmith, Theo Heras, Susan Corapi, 2016-08-11 Reading the World's Stories is volume 5 in the Bridges to Understanding series of annotated international youth literature bibliographies sponsored by the United States Board on Books for Young People USBBY is the United States chapter of the International Board on Books for Young People IBBY a Switzerland based nonprofit whose mission is bring books and children together The series promotes sharing international children's books as a way to facilitate intercultural understanding and meet new literary voices This volume follows Children's Books from Other Countries 1998 The World through Children's Books 2002 Crossing Boundaries with Children's Books 2006 and Bridges to Understanding Envisioning the World through Children's Books 2011 and acts as a companion book to the earlier titles Centered around the theme of the importance of stories the guide is a resource for discovering more recent global books that fit many reading tastes and educational needs for readers aged 0-18 years Essays by storyteller Anne Pellowski author Beverley Naidoo and academic Marianne Martens offer a variety of perspectives on international youth literature This latest installment in the series covers books published from 2010-2014 and includes English language imports as well as translations of children's and young adult literature first published outside of the United States These books are supplemented by a smaller number of culturally appropriate books from the US to help fill in gaps from underrepresented countries The organization of the guide is geographic by region and country All of the more than 800 entries are recommended and many of the books have won awards or achieved other recognition in their home countries Forty children's book experts wrote the annotations The entries are indexed by author translator illustrator title and subject Back matter also includes international book awards important organizations and research collections and a selected directory of publishers known for publishing books from other countries

The Early Reader in Children's Literature and Culture Jennifer Miskec, Annette Wannamaker, 2015-12-22 This is the first volume to consider the popular literary category of Early Readers books written and designed for children who are just beginning to read independently It argues that Early Readers deserve more scholarly attention and careful thought because they are for many younger readers their first opportunity to engage with a work of literature on their own to feel a sense of mastery over a text and to experience pleasure from the act of reading independently Using interdisciplinary approaches that draw upon and synthesize research being done in education child psychology sociology cultural studies and children's literature the volume visits Early Readers from a variety of angles as teaching tools as cultural artifacts that shape cultural and individual subjectivity as mass produced products sold to a niche market of parents educators and young children and as aesthetic objects works of literature and art with specific conventions Examining the reasons such books are so popular with young readers as well as the reasons that some adults challenge and censor them the volume considers the ways Early Readers contribute to the construction of younger children as readers thinkers consumers and as gendered raced classed subjects It also addresses children's texts that have been translated and sold around the globe examining them as part of an increasingly transnational children's media culture that may add to or supplant regional ethnic and national children's literatures and cultures While this collection focuses mostly on books written in English and often aimed at children living in the US it is important to acknowledge that these Early Readers are a major US cultural export influencing the reading habits and development of children across the globe

Children's Literature in the Reading Program Deborah A. Wooten, Lauren Aimonette Liang, Bernice E. Cullinan, 2018-06-15 This indispensable teacher resource and course text now revised and updated addresses the what's why's and how to's of incorporating outstanding children's literature into the K-8 reading program A strong emphasis on diverse literature is woven throughout the fifth edition with chapters emphasizing the need for books that reflect their readers and presenting dozens of carefully reviewed books that teachers will be eager to use in the classroom Leading authorities provide advice on selecting texts building core literacy and literary skills supporting struggling readers and maximizing engagement The volume offers proven strategies for teaching specific genres and formats such as fiction nonfiction picturebooks graphic novels biographies and poetry This title is a copublication with the International Literacy Association New to This Edition Many new teaching ideas and book recommendations with an increased focus on culturally diverse literature Scope expanded from K-5 to K-8 Chapter on using read alouds and silent reading Chapters on diverse literature about the arts and on transitional chapter books Chapter on engaging struggling readers with authentic reading experiences
