Havana In My Heart 75 Years Of Cuban Photography:

Havana in My Heart Gareth Jenkins, 2002 The photographs capture not just the stunning architecture but also the people the music the ageless traditions the tenderness and the turbulence that are the real Havana Cuban Palimpsests Jose Quiroga, 2005 Four decades ago the Cuban revolution captured the world's attention and imagination Its impact around the world was as much cultural as geopolitical Within Cuba the state developed a strictly defined national and collective memory that led directly from a colonial past to a utopian future but this narrative came to a halt in the early 1990s The collapse of Cuba's sponsor the Soviet Union and the end of the Cold War preceded the so called Special Period in Times of Peace a euphemistic phrase that masked the genuine anxiety shared by leaders and people about the nation's future In Cuban Palimpsests Jos Quiroga explores the sites both physical and imaginative where memory bears upon Cuba's collective history in ways that illuminate this extended moment of uncertainty Crossing geographical political and cultural borders Quiroga moves with ease between Cuba Miami and New York He traces generational shifts within the exile community contrasts Havana's cultural richness with its economic impoverishment follows the cloak and dagger narratives of revolutionary and counterrevolutionary spy fiction and film and documents the world's ongoing fascination with Cuban culture From the nostalgic photographs of Walker Evans to the iconic stature of Fidel Castro from the literary expressions of despair to the beat of Cuban musical rhythms from the haunting legacy of artist Ana Mendieta to the death of Celia Cruz and the reburial of Che Guevara Cuban Palimpsests memorializes the ruins of Cuba's past and offers a powerful meditation on its enigmatic place within the new world order Jos Quiroga is professor and department chair of Spanish and Portuguese at Emory University He is the author of Understanding Octavio Paz and Tropics of Desire Interventions from Queer Latino America music literature baseball and food its five centuries of outstanding neglected architecture and its extraordinary blend of cultures Like all great cities Havana has a rich history that informs the vibrant place it is today from the native Taino to Columbus's landing from Cuba's status as a U.S. protectorate to Batista's dictatorship and Castro's revolution from Soviet presence to the welcoming of capitalist tourism Havana is a place of extremes a beautifully restored colonial city whose cobblestone streets pass through areas that have not been painted or repaired since long before the revolution Kurlansky shows Havana through the eyes of Cuban writers such as Alejo Carpentier and Jos Mart and foreigners including Graham Greene and Hemingway He introduces us to Cuban baseball and its highly opinionated fans the city's music scene alive with the rhythm of son its culinary legacy Through Mark Kurlansky's multilayered and electrifying portrait the long elusive city of Havana comes stirring to life Time Travel in the Latin American and Caribbean Imagination R.
