Watsuji Tetsurô's Global Ethics of Emptiness

Anton Luis Sevilla, 2017-08-31 This book is a rethinking of ethics and socio political life through the ideas of Watsuji Tetsur. Can we build a systematic philosophy of morality, society and politics not on the basis of identity and ego but rather on the basis of selflessness? This book explores such an attempt by the leading ethicist of modern Japan. Using concrete examples and contemporary comparisons and with careful reference to both English and Japanese sources it guides the reader through Watsuji's ideas. It engages three contemporary issues in depth: First, how do we approach the moral agent as an autonomous being or as a fundamentally relational being? Second, is it the individual or the community that is the starting point for politics? And finally, is ethics something that is globally shared or something fundamentally local? This book aims to be an informative and inspiring resource for researchers, students and laypersons interested in Buddhist thought. Anthropology Matters, Third Edition Shirley A. Fedorak, 2017-04-05 The third edition of this bestselling book introduces readers to anthropology and the world around it by connecting important concepts to current global issues. the official and state statistics suggest that between 500 to 600 thousand children per year Iran are getting married and these are only the statistics for marriages that officially registered without including those outside the formal marriage process Now there are around 14 000 child widows in the country and according to estimates from the United Nations 17 percent of all marriages in Iran are under the age of 18 Further some men who have more than one spouse in Iran do not register their child marriages and hide them This comprehensive research first attempts to analyse the prevalence of child marriage in Iran with an emphasis on socio cultural factors that reflect the profound and deep rooted inequalities which have contributed to the persistence of child marriage in Iran The scientific reason for doing this research is to explain the evidence and prevalence of this traumatic practice in Iran and to assist government decision makers in focusing on the immediate protection of these children s human rights This book as an effort to expose and deepen understandings of the issue of child marriage in Iran has attracted the attention of civil activists government policymakers and some parliamentary representatives and MPs It has provided the background to proposals for raising the minimum age for child marriage amending Article 1041 of the Civil Code This proposal was approved by the House of Representatives in an emergency and with a majority of votes but unanimously rejected by the Majlis Legal and Judicial Commission As the only fieldwork study these research findings were predicated on producing civil society advocacy and the need for parliament to amend the law In the community level the research has raised a wave of public awareness leading to a serious civil society demand for a ban on child marriage and raising the age of marriage from 13 to 16 for girls and from 15 to 18 for boys
