Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl. Linda Brent, Lydia Maria Francis Child, 2014-11-15 Here is one of the few slave narratives written by a woman Slavery is a terrible thing but it is far more terrible and harrowing for women than for men Harriet Jacobs was owned by a brutal master who beat his slaves regularly and subjected them to indignations that were far worse Jacobs eventually escaped her master and moved to a northern state Though she was unable to take her children with her at the time they were later reunited Read her powerful and compelling story This autobiographical account by a former slave is one of the few extant narratives written by a woman Written and published in 1861 it delivers a powerful portrayal of the brutality of slave life Jacobs speaks frankly of her master s abuse and her eventual escape in a tale of dauntless spirit and faith God gave me a soul that burned for freedom and a heart nerved with determination to suffer even unto death in pursuit of liberty In this excerpt from a letter written by Harriet Jacobs to her friend the abolitionist Amy Post Jacobs expresses her determination to continue her quest for freedom Dated October 9 1853 less than two years after Jacobs was freed the letter was written in response to Post's suggestion that Jacobs tell the story of her abuse and exploitation as an enslaved black woman Eight years later in 1861 the same year that marked the beginning of the Civil War Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl Written by Herself was published in Boston According to the chronology of Jacobs's life compiled by her autobiographer Jean Fagan Yellin the events described in Incidents narrated by Linda Brent mirror key incidents of Jacobs's life

Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl Harriet Jacobs, 2016-05-08 Reader be assured this narrative is no fiction I am aware that some of my adventures may seem incredible but they are nevertheless strictly true I have not exaggerated the wrongs inflicted by Slavery on the contrary my descriptions fall far short of the facts I have concealed the names of places and given persons fictitious names I had no motive for secrecy on my own account but I deemed it kind and considerate towards others to pursue this course I wish I were more competent to the task I have undertaken But I trust my readers will excuse deficiencies in consideration of circumstances I was born and reared in Slavery and I remained in a Slave State twenty seven years Since I have been at the North it has been necessary for me to work diligently for my own support and the education of my children This has not left me much leisure to make up for the loss of early opportunities to improve myself and it has compelled me to write these pages at irregular intervals whenever I could snatch an hour from household duties When I first arrived in Philadelphia Bishop Paine advised me to publish a sketch of my life but I told him I was altogether incompetent to such an undertaking Though I have improved my mind somewhat since that time I still remain of the same opinion but I trust my motives will excuse what might otherwise seem presumptuous I have not written my experiences in order to attract attention to myself on the contrary it would have been more pleasant to me to have been silent about my own history Neither do I care to excite sympathy for my own sufferings But I do earnestly desire to arouse the women of the North to a realizing sense of the condition of two millions of women at the South still in bondage suffering what I suffered and most of them far worse I want to add my testimony to that of abler pens to convince the people of the Free States what Slavery really is Only by experience can any one realize how deep and dark and foul is that pit of abominations May the blessing of God rest on this imperfect effort in behalf of my persecuted people Linda Brent AKA Harriet Jacobs

The Life of a Slave Girl Harriet Jacobs, 2019-05-22 I was born a slave but I never knew it till six years of happy childhood had passed away My father was a carpenter and considered so intelligent and skilful in his trade that when buildings out of the common line were to be erected he was sent for from long distances to be head workman On condition of paying his mistress two hundred dollars a year and supporting himself he was allowed to work at his trade and manage his own affairs His strongest wish was to purchase his children but though he several times offered his hard earnings for that purpose he never succeeded In complexion my parents were a light shade of brownish yellow and were termed mulattoes They lived together in a comfortable home and though we were all slaves I was so fondly shielded that I never dreamed I was a piece of merchandise trusted to them for safe keeping and liable to be demanded of them at any moment I had one brother William who was two years younger than myself a bright affectionate child Such were the unusually fortunate circumstances of my early childhood When I was six years old my mother died and then for the first time I learned by the talk around me that I was a slave My mother s mistress was the daughter of my grandmother s mistress She was the foster sister of my mother they were both nourished at my grandmother s breast In fact my mother had been weaned at three months old that the babe of the mistress might obtain sufficient food They played together as children and when they became women my mother was a most faithful servant to her whiter foster sister On her death bed her mistress promised that her children should never suffer for any thing and during her lifetime she kept her word They all spoke kindly of my dead mother who had been a slave merely in name but in nature was noble and womanly Reader my story ends with freedom not in the usual way with marriage I and my children are now free We are as free from the power of slaveholders as are the white people of the north and though that according to my ideas is not saying a great deal it is a vast improvement in my condition The dream of my life is not yet realized I do not sit with my children in a home of my own I still long for a hearthstone of my own however humble I wish it for my children s sake far more than for my own But God so orders circumstances as to keep me with my friend Mrs Bruce Love duty gratitude also bind me to her side It is a privilege to serve her who pities my oppressed people and who has bestowed the inestimable boon of freedom on me and my children It has been painful to me in many ways to recall the dreary years I passed in bondage I would gladly forget them if I could Yet the retrospection is not altogether without solace for with those gloomy recollections come tender memories of my good old grandmother like light fleecy clouds floating over a dark and troubled sea Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl (1861) Harriet Jacobs, 2014-08-07 This Is A New Release Of The Original 1861 Edition Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl (with Reproduction of Original Notice of Reward Offered for Harriet Jacobs) Harriet Jacobs, Linda Brent, 2008-03 Please visit www ArcManor com for books by other great authors
