□□□□□□□□, 1974 Tyranny Through Public Education - Revised Edition William F. Jr Cox, 2004-04 This book documents the inherently flawed nature of America s public school system as currently structured Contemporary recommendations for correcting the system invariably treat symptoms rather than the inherent problem of government control over parental and religious rights The book documents that education is a religious endeavor and that freedom of religion is guaranteed in the United States parents have an inalienable right to raise their children free from government constraints on education civil government is to protect and not deprive citizens of their inalienable rights the educational history of our country affirms that education has always had a religious function recent interpretations of the First and Fourteenth Amendments are both misguided and opposite from their original meanings federal control of education and education taxation is outside the legitimate authority of the U S Constitution and government control of education at federal state and local levels is inherently tyrannical Addressed in separate chapters the above mentioned issues individually and collectively build a compelling case for the disestablishment of government control and the return of parental control to education To quote James Madison government should relate to education in the same way as it does to religion not to intermeddle with it

 Turgenev V 20 Valera Bj rnsen Kielland Justice for Kids Nancy E. Dowd, 2011 Children and youth become involved with the juvenile justice system at a significant rate While some children move just as quickly out of the system and go on to live productive lives as adults other children become enmeshed in the system developing deeper problems and or transferring into the adult criminal justice system Justice for Kids is a volume of work by leading academics and activists that focuses on ways to intervene at the earliest possible point to rehabilitate and redirect to keep kids out of the system rather than to punish and drive kids deeper Justice for Kids presents a compelling argument for rethinking and restructuring the juvenile justice system as we know it This unique collection explores the system's fault lines with respect to all children and focuses in particular on issues of race gender and sexual orientation that skew the system Most importantly it provides specific program initiatives that offer alternatives to our thinking about prevention and deterrence with an ultimate focus on keeping kids out of the system altogether The Logic of Women on Trial Janice E. Schuetz, 1994 Janice Schuetz investigates the felony trials of nine American women from colonial Salem to the present Rebecca Nurse tried for witchcraft in 1692 Mary E

 1892 for the axe murder of her father and stepmother Margaret Sanger tried in 1915 1917 and 1929 for her actions in support of birth control Ethel Rosenberg tried in 1951 for aiding the disclosure of secrets of the atom bomb to the Soviets Yvonne Wanrow tried in 1974 for killing a man who molested her neighbor's daughter Patricia Campbell Hearst tried in 1975 for bank robbery as a member of the Symbionese Liberation Army Jean Harris tried in 1982 for killing Herman Tarnower the Diet Doctor and Darci Kayleen Pierce tried in 1988 for kidnapping and brutally murdering a pregnant woman then removing the baby from the woman's womb In her analysis Schuetz is careful to define these trials as popular trials Characteristically popular trials involve persons issues or crimes of social interest that attract extensive public interest and involvement Such trials make a contribution to the ongoing historical dialogue about the meaning of justice and the legal system while reflecting the values of the time and place in which they occur Schuetz examines the kinds of communication that transpired and the importance of gender in the trials by applying a different current rhetorical theory to each trial text In every chapter she explains her chosen interpretive theory compares that framework with the discourse of the trial and makes judgments about the meaning of the trial texts based on the interpretive theory Justice, Justice Daniel Hiram Perlstein, 2004 A path the Eclipse of Liberalism recounts how teachers and activists' ideals shaped the school crisis and placed them at the epicenter

E. B. Du Bois and the Critique of the Competitive Society Andrew J.

Douglas, 2019-08-15 Competition and competitiveness are roundly celebrated as public values and key indicators of a dynamic and forward thinking society But the headlong embrace of competitive market principles increasingly prevalent in our neoliberal age often obscures the enduring divisiveness of a society set up to produce winners and losers In this inspired and thoughtfully argued book Andrew J Douglas turns to the later writings of W E B Du Bois to reevaluate the very terms of the competitive society Situating Du Bois in relation to the Depression era roots of contemporary neoliberal thinking Douglas shows that into the 1930s Du Bois ratcheted up a race conscious indictment of capitalism and liberal democracy and posed unsettling questions about how the compulsory pull of market relations breeds unequal outcomes and underwrites the perpetuation of racial animosities Blending historical analysis with ethical and political theory and casting new light on several aspects of Du Bois s thinking this book makes a compelling case that Du Bois s sweeping disillusionment with Western liberalism is as timely now as ever Environmental & Social Justice Challenges Near America's Most Popular Museums, Parks, Zoos & Other Heritage Attractions Michael Greenberg, 2022-08-09 This book examines environmental and social justice challenges near America s most popular heritage attractions These include over 100 places that host national parks e g Glacier Yellowstone zoos e g Bronx Henry Doorly urban parks e g Central Park Fairmount grand concourses e g 5th Avenue Massachusetts Avenue and multiple museums and galleries e g National Gallery Getty The book includes measurements of demographics air quality distance from hazards health outcomes and urban assets in the areas immediately surrounding these heritage sites and compares them with adjacent areas and their host cities or states It considers the history of justice related issues near the sites and evaluates what owners managers and communities are doing to address gentrification displacement the legacy of redlining and other challenges such as the animal rights movement climate change sustainability and tight budgets The book examines what some host cities are doing about affordable housing and what some heritage sites have done in establishing constructive relationships with surrounding communities The book should have two primary audiences One is the strong and growing social and environmental justice community that has increasingly been scrutinizing parks and other icons for evidence of injustice This book will interest them even though all the results do not necessarily support their positions The second audience is businesses not for profits and government agencies who manage parks zoos museums and other attractions and need to understand what is happening near their sites and what they can do to be better neighbours
