In A Haunted Capital, children visit eleven of the most haunted spots in Washington, D.C. and come across some of its most famous ghosts. Among them are a former president who never left the White House, a vice president who still hurries to his office in the Capitol building, and a First Lady who has found a quiet and peaceful home years after her death. The haunting photographs and chilling nonfiction text will keep children turning the pages to discover more spooky stories.

Instead of losing customers, however, business exploded. Since then, Kermeen has traveled to over 150 haunted inns and hotels throughout the U.S. and collected some of the creepiest ghost stories ever told, and they're all true. Readers will enter the Oatman Hotel, where the distinct outline of a man once murdered in the room remains imprinted on the sheets, no matter how many times the maids change them. And in the garden of the Myrtles Plantation, two little girls who were poisoned there in 1824 are often seen playing. You'll visit these possessed places and many more in Ghostly Encounters.
