11 "Accordingly, these two opposing types of responses to 12 an intervention pointing that threat suggests that the underlying driver could be the 13 social context.
14 "Furthermore, the institutional contexts of an organization influence people 15 in a way that influences behavior" (emphasis added). All different contexts may 16 influence a particular behavior differently, thus, only one of the authors' own 17 studies could show that it was not only the case in that particular study.
