Kazuo Ohno's World From Without And Within:

Kazuo Ohno's World, 2004-07-15 Photographs and words illuminate Butoh dance Sensing and Making Sense Grazielle Lautenschlaeger, 2020-12-07 Through a genealogy of photosensitive elements in media devices and artworks this book investigates three dichotomies that impoverish debates and proposals in media art material immaterial organic machinic and theory practice It combines historical and analytical approaches through new materialism media archaeology cultural techniques and second order cybernetics Known media stories are reframed from an alternative perspective elucidating photosensitivity as a metonymy to provide guidelines to art students artists curators and theoreticians especially those who are committed to critical views of scientific and technological knowledge in aesthetic experimentations Hijikata Tatsumi and Butoh B. Baird, 2012-01-30 Hijikata Tatsumi's explosive 1959 debut Forbidden Colors sparked a new genre of performance in Japan butoh an art form of contrasts by turns shocking and serene Since then though interest has grown exponentially and people all over the world are drawn to butoh's ability to enact paradox and contradiction audiences are less knowledgeable about the contributions and innovations of the founder of butoh Hijikata Tatsumi and Butoh traces the rollicking history of the creation and initial maturation of butoh and locates Hijikata's performances within the intellectual cultural and economic ferment of Japan from the sixties to the eighties The Exquisite Corpse Kanta Kochhar-Lindgren, Davis Schneiderman, Tom Denlinger, 2009-12-01 This work addresses historical and contemporary manifestations of poems drawings collages and performance works that employ the ritual of the cadaver exquis Staged Experiences Arthur Maria Stein, Ana Penjak, Celia Morgan, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2014 The term performance practice houses within it a diversity of practices and artists whose work extends and interrogates the boundaries between theatre and nearly all other creative art forms This volume contains diverse theoretical and creative essays all of which manifest a commitment to exploring the complexity of relationships between performer space and audience The work investigated is not subsumed within disciplines but cuts across and between disciplinary vocabularies providing new synergies domains and inter disciplinary possibilities Revolutionary innovations and experimentations are presented in the fields of motion graphics design and scenography Readers will discover the challenges and ingenuities of the imaginary and the dynamics of performance as it intersects with the physical construction of space The mysteries of what denotes liveness will be unveiled The Barber of Seville will be re imagined through juvenile intervention and Shakespeare is viewed through the hypnagogic imagination against the nothingness of Venetian mystique Space, Mobility, and Crisis in Mega-Event Organisation Rodanthi Tzanelli, 2022-11-25 This book advances an alternative critical posthumanist approach to mega event organisation taking into account both the new and the old crises which humanity and our planet face Taking the delayed Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games as a case study Tzanelli explores mega event crisis and risk management in the era of extreme urbanisation natural disasters global pandemic and technoscientific control Using the atmospheric term irradiation a technology of glamour and transparency as well as bodily penetration by harmful agents and strong affects the book explores this epistemological statement diachronically via Tokyo's relationship with Western forms of domination and synchronically the city as a global cultural political player but victim of climate catastrophes It presents how the Olympic enterprise's flattening of indigenous environmental place making rhythms and the scientisation of space and place in the Anthropocene lead to reductionisms harmful for a viable programme of planetary recovery An experimental study of the mega event is enacted which considers the researcher's analytical tools and the styles of human and non human mobility during the mega event as reflexive gateways to forms of posthuman flourishing Crossing and bridging disciplinary boundaries the book will appeal to any scholar interested in mobilities theory event and environment studies sociology of knowledge and cultural globalisation
