Creating Inclusive Online Communities Sharla Berry, 2023-07-03 Before the Covid 19 pandemic online and distance education enrolled over 19 million students in the US As colleges and universities return to in person instruction the number of online courses and programs is poised to grow exponentially At the same time institutions of higher education are increasingly more diverse racially ethnically and socioeconomically with present and future students having a range of intersectional needs related to their cultural backgrounds gendered experiences and abilities Sharla Berry offers faculty practical strategies for building asynchronous synchronous and blended online courses and programs that are inclusive and engaging for diverse learners Recognizing that community is a complex contextual and constantly shifting concept Sharla Berry opens this book by addressing how to develop an inclusive approach to online teaching that takes into account the experiences and needs of historically marginalized and underrepresented students Covering the affordances and limitations of synchronous and asynchronous teaching as well as hybrid and fully online instruction she outlines different approaches to course design and identifies how to use the myriad functions of learning management systems from collaborative tools to administering tests to engage students and assess their involvement and progress While primarily designed to provide faculty with practical and actionable ideas and strategies this book will also prove useful to those that support faculty in cultivating teaching excellence Administrators instructional designers faculty developers and support staff will gain insight into how to support faculty in developing robust and inclusive online courses This book is a thoughtful and practical resource for anyone involved in the teaching and design of online courses and programs that meet the needs of an increasingly diverse student body in an evolving and multifaceted online environment Promoting Inclusion and Justice in University Teaching Teresa M. Cappiali, Johanne Jean-Pierre, 2024-05-02 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4.0 License. It is free to read, download, and share on Elgaronline thanks to generous funding support from Lund University. Promoting Inclusion and Justice in University Teaching offers a theoretical and practical contribution to ongoing debates concerning why and how we need to expand the goals of education in an increasingly diverse academia to enhance inclusivity and equity. It integrates a wide range of well-designed teaching activities grounded in the principles of transformative pedagogy into university settings to connect in-class teaching to social justice demands Creating an Inclusive School Archana Singhal, Meeta Agrawal, 2024-08-07 This book addresses the urgent need to integrate children with special needs as equal participants in all educational levels for their holistic development. It outlines strategies to foster inclusion by adapting standard school practices to accommodate children who vary socially, mentally, or physically from their peers. Covering a broad range of special needs, the book identifies key types of physical, behavioral, and mental challenges and highlights the learning needs of marginalized children. Emphasizing diverse teaching and assessment methods, it aligns with the Rights of Persons with Disabilities Act 2016 and serves as a valuable reference for B.Ed, M.Ed, M.A. Education, and diploma courses in Education Inclusive Practice for Learning Support Assistants Zoe Hosier, 2025-07-30 Inclusive Practice for Learning Support Assistants explores the role of the LSA and drawing from first-hand interviews, sheds light on a variety of LSA experiences and perspectives, detailing the often-hidden aspects of their work to support the learning of special educational needs and neurodivergent students. Covering key areas including wellbeing, support, challenging behaviour, and student independence, chapters provide LSAs with practical tips and reflective insights to improve their work supporting children and young people in schools. Explore dialogic education and assistive technologies with much-needed reflection opportunities. Include guidance on working with students one-to-one as well as in small groups. Offer advice on how LSAs and teachers can foster strong working relationships in class. This informative and accessible guide will give both new starter and more experienced LSAs a strong and holistic understanding of the role of inclusive practice and where they can really make a difference for their students. It will be valuable reading for LSAs as well as the teachers and SENCOs who work closely with them Using Narratives and Storytelling to Promote Cultural Diversity on College Campuses Bledsoe, T. Scott, Setterlund, Kimberly A., 2020-07-10 Stories offer opportunities for listeners to merge the storyteller's experiences with their own, resulting in connections that can turn into life-changing experiences. As listeners and storytellers, it is imperative that we look more closely at the stories and narratives that shape our lives. Using Narratives and Storytelling to Promote Cultural Diversity on College Campuses is an essential research publication that offers a framework for identifying culture-based narratives. The book follows five college students through a vast array of divergent experiences and provides a comprehensive dialogue about diversity through personal narratives of college faculty, students, staff, and administrators.
