Identity Belonging Kate Huppatz:

Identity and Belonging Kate Huppatz, Amie Matthews, Mary Hawkins, 2019-02-05 Identity and Belonging examines the interplay between self and society and in doing so explores the complex nature of who we are and how we come to be as individuals and as members of various social groups Investigating issues of identity and belonging as they emerge in contemporary social life and under conditions of globalisation the book focuses on continuity and change in the formation of identities and communities Through a variety of examples and case studies the chapters discuss how elements such as ethnicity class gender and sexuality intersect and are experienced both locally and transnationally As a modern guide to some classic themes and key thinkers in the discipline of sociology this accessible text can be used to introduce core topics of identity social divisions and globalisation as well as to investigate in detail more specific themes and issues such as migration consumption and digital media It is a useful and comprehensive resource for both undergraduate and postgraduate students of sociology and related disciplines

Culture and the Soldier H. Christian Breede, 2019-10-01 Countries have instituted policies to make their armed forces more inclusive and soldiers now undergo cultural awareness training before they see active duty Policy makers and military organizations agree that culture is important But what does culture mean in practice and how is it important Drawing on case studies from Europe and North America Culture and the Soldier answers these questions by examining how culture both shapes the military and can be wielded by it Culture as a force has the power to influence how soldiers remember battle and how women are treated within the ranks As a factor it can be leveraged by militaries in a range of ways from preventing cultural dislocation among soldiers in Afghanistan to mounting propaganda campaigns in support of totalitarian regimes By bringing to light the ways in which culture is influencing military organizations and modern combat this volume offers provocative insights into how culture can be deployed to improve armed forces at home and in military engagements abroad

Tourism and Ethnodevelopment Ismar Borges de Lima, Victor T. King, 2017-09-13 Ethnodevelopment is a well established concept in the field of development studies Despite its relevance to tourism initiatives and processes in the Global South it continues to be an underutilised concept in the field This book bridges this gap presenting an original conceptual framework to study the relationship between tourism and ethnodevelopment It focuses on the processes of inclusion empowerment self expression and self determination to explore the effects of tourism initiatives on the identities cultural resilience livelihoods and economic opportunities of ethnic minority communities Chapters explore a range of concepts and issues such as gender authenticity indigenous knowledge tradition the commodification of culture community based tourism local entrepreneurship cultural heritage and tourism and the environment Drawing on rich primary research conducted across South East Asia and South and Central America the book offers detailed evaluations of the successes and failures of various tourism policies and practices This book makes a valuable contribution for students scholars practitioners and policy makers alike interested in tourism development studies geography and anthropology Monster Anthropology Yasmine Musharbash, Geir Henning Presterudstuen, 2020-06-03 Monsters are culturally meaningful across the world Starting from this key premise this book tackles monsters in the context of social change Writing in a time of violent upheaval when technological innovation brings forth new monsters while others perish as part of the widespread extinctions that signify the Anthropocene contributors argue that putting monsters at the center of social analysis opens up new perspectives on change and social transformation Through a series of ethnographically grounded analyses they capture monsters that herald drive experience enjoy and suffer the transformations of the worlds they beleaguer Topics examined include the evil skulking new roads in Ancient Greece terror in post socialist Laos s territorial cults a horrific flying head that augurs catastrophe in the rain forest of Borneo benign spirits that accompany people through the mist in Iceland flesh eating giants marching through neo colonial central Australia and ghosts lingering in Pacific villages in the aftermath of environmental disasters By taking the proposition that monsters and the humans they haunt are intricately and intimately entangled seriously this book offers unique cross cultural perspectives on how people perceive the world and their place within it It also shows how these experiences of belonging are mediated by our relationships with the other than human Korea and the Global Society Yonson Ahn, 2023-02-03 This book explores multiple fields and disciplines around the theme of South Korea s engagement and exchanges with global society focusing on development cooperation migration and the media The core of this volume is an analysis of South Korea s engagement and reciprocity in global society that has developed out of the country s shift from aid recipient and migrant sender to aid provider and migrant host The contributions approach this through the three main aspects of overseas aid cross border contacts and interplay of identities in the mediascape These themes represent an interdisciplinary array of research that introduces and analyses interconnected and concurrent instances of reciprocity convergence tension inclusion or exclusion in navigating South Korea s interactional relations with global society spanning regions and countries including Africa Asia the USA and Germany This book will be valuable reading to students and researchers from a wide range of disciplines including sociology gender studies ethnic studies media studies IR and area studies in particular Korean studies The Costs of the Gig Economy Falina Enriquez, 2022-09-13 Institutions in Recife Brazil have restructured subsidies in favor of encouraging musicians to become more entrepreneurial Falina Enriquez explores how contemporary and traditional musicians in the fabled musical city have negotiated these intensified neoliberal cultural policies and economic uncertainties Drawing on years of fieldwork Enriquez shows how forcing artists to adopt neutral market solutions reinforces and generates overlapping racial and class based inequalities Lacking the social and financial resources of their middle class peers working class musicians find it difficult to uphold institutional goals of connecting the city s cultural roots to global markets and consumers Enriquez also links the artists situation to that of cultural and creative workers around the world As she shows musical sponsorship in Recife and the contemporary gig economy elsewhere employ processes that far from being neutral uphold governmental and corporate ideologies that produce social stratification Rich and vibrant The Costs of the Gig Economy offers a rare English language portrait of the changing musical culture in Recife

The Good Mother Susan Goodwin, Kate Huppatz, 2010 The Good Mother brings together essays on the contemporary relevance of the good mother in Australia Although the ideals of the good mother change with time fashion and context they persist in public policy the media popular culture and workplaces They place pressure on women to conform to particular standards against which they are judged and judge themselves This book captures the diversity of contemporary women's experiences Chapters address the experiences of executive mothers mothers working in manual trades yummy mummies and slummy mummies low income mothers single mothers Indigenous mothers lesbian parents adoptive mothers and mothers negotiating schools and school choice The essays demonstrate that while the good mother is no longer exclusively white heterosexual economically dependent and child focused prevailing ideas about mothers and motherhood continue to influence the way types of women are represented and the way that all mothers think act and present themselves

Religious and National Discourses Hanna Acke, Silvia Bonacchi, Charlotta Seiler Brylla, Ingo H. Warnke, 2023-08-07 The editors of this volume have combined their expertise in discourse contradiction minority and diversity studies to suggest a change of perspective from categorisations into societal minorities and majorities towards an analysis of marginalising and centralising discourses For this purpose we have gathered interdisciplinary minded authors from linguistics literary and religious studies political and historical sciences Their contributions focus on contradictions of religious and national belonging as well as intersections of religion and nation in many different regions of the world from the 18th century until today While illustrating the diversity and contradictions of religious and national belonging across time and space the chapters of the book contribute to an understanding of the dynamics of questions of belonging and the associated constant renegotiations of power within these discursive processes

Design and Heritage

Grace Lees-Maffei, Rebecca Houze, 2021-12-29 Design and Heritage provides the first extended study of heritage from the point of view of design history Exploring the material objects and spaces that contribute to our experience of heritage the volume also examines the processes and practices that shape them Bringing together 18 case studies written by authors from the United States the United Kingdom Canada Brazil Norway India South Africa Australia and New Zealand the book questions how design functions to produce heritage Including provocative case studies of objects that reinterpret visual symbols of cultural identity and buildings and monuments that evoke feelings of national pride and historical memory as well as landscapes embedded with trauma contributors consider how we can work to develop adequate shared conceptual models of heritage and apply them to design and its histories Exploring the distinction between tangible and intangible heritages the chapters consider what these categories mean for design history and heritage Finally the book questions whether it might be possible to promote a truly equitable understanding of heritage that illuminates the social cultural and economic roles of design Design and Heritage demonstrates that design historical methods of inquiry contribute significantly to critical heritage studies Academics researchers and students engaged in the study of heritage design history material culture folklore art history architectural history and social and cultural history will find much to interest them within the pages of the book

Identity, Belonging and Human Rights Nasia Hadjigeorgiou, 2016 This edited volume explores the concepts of identity and belonging by bringing together both chapters that engage with the two terms on a theoretical and a more practical level The theoretical chapters found in Part I of the volume explore dilemmas and difficult questions that have to do with identity and belonging while the more practical contributions found in Part II of the volume discuss the effects of identity and belonging in our everyday lives The final chapters found in Part III seek to take the discussion on identity and belonging further and explore how these twin concepts relate to and can be seen through the prism of human rights
