these is the African worldview exploring knowledge through eldership witchcraft and divination This is followed up by kingship ideology and epistemologies exploring discussing how politics religion and belief shape African society Finally the world religion chapter examines Christianity Islam and Pentecostalism in their impact on African ways of knowing This book calls to action new fields of study in universities encouraging a greater understanding of African ways of knowing through more nuanced disciplines

Ìwà: The Process-Relational Dimension to African Metaphysics Emmanuel Ofuasia, 2024-11-22 This book approaches the subject of African metaphysics historically as it connects Ancient Egypt to Yor b It provides a history of African metaphysics from ancient Egypt or Kemet down to John Boakye Danquah and Placide Tempels in the 20th century and then Innocent Asouzu Ada Agada and Aribiah David Attoe in the 21st century As it surpasses the deductions of these previous works it moves further to showcase African originality and approaches to studying reality whilst resisting the temptation to deduce conclusions from Western philosophy It is the first book in the history of African philosophy to use a process relational approach to interrogate African metaphysics It also serves to harmonize and engage prominent African scholars who have written on the subject of African metaphysics The general scope of this book centers on engaging the history of distortion and misunderstanding of African metaphysics by providing a relevant and reliable process relational background as well as an alternative trivalent logic system Unless African metaphysical theories are understood from this perspective they will remain powerless to overcome these misrepresentations It appeals to students and researchers internationally actively working in the fields of African philosophy Intercultural African studies as well as process studies

_____ This book is one of the valuable contributions to the emerging field of African philosophy after decades 1970s 1990s of rather fruitless debates on the status of the discipline Like many others the book side tracks the seemingly unending controversy of whether or not there is such a thing as African philosophy Godwin Sogolo Emerittus Professor of Philosophy National Open University of Nigeria NOUN In the opening lines of the introduction of this monumental book Dr Ofuasia announces As you read these lines the earth in which you live in as an ontological entity is spinning at an estimate estimated speed of 67 000 mph This indicates that the perspective that a thing is not in motion or is at rest is one of the fallacies ever fed to humanity Nothing rests I was awe struck by how this revelation from physics extends to metaphysics This book is a welcoming addition to African metaphysical scholarship as the process relational approach used to explore Egyptian and ancient Yor b thought system in this work creatively intersects emerging discourses on agency both at the animate and what humans call inanimate ontology plant sentience African medicine cosmogony the physical sciences neutral nihilism and other related metaphysical topics The eclectic interrogation of classical concepts of w and Nun from the Yoruba and Egyptian intellectual traditions respectively is a trail blazing contribution Congratulations on this feat Dr Ofuasia Ademola Kazeem Fayemi Queensland Bioethics Center Australian Catholic University Brisbane Dr Ofuasia s book marries aspects of Egyptian philosophy with ancient Yor b metaphysics and process metaphysics all under the framework of Ezumezu logic and it works What has emerged from this marriage is a new and contemporary theory in African metaphysics w ontology which is strongly grounded on African thought This book is recommended for anyone interested in African metaphysics Aribiah David Attoe University of the Witwatersrand Emmanuel Ofuasia s text is engaged at times even rightfully angry This makes this a lively energetic contribution I appreciate that This passion is often missing in philosophy but it is much needed especially in this area of research Bjoerne Freter Hagerstown Community College Maryland In this timely work Emmanuel Ofuasia throws down a challenge to African philosophers with the claim that process thinking runs through African philosophy from the contested Egyptian past down to contemporary times His claim culminates in the articulation of w ontology which he presents as a contemporary philosophical expression of process metaphysics This is a bold insightful and impressive work that will brighten the ever expanding horizon of 21st century African philosophy Ada Agada Federal University Otuoke
