David Walker

Ifs Finance Grade Boundaries 2013:

Paying for Education Peter Davies, 2018-04-18 Which type of education should we pay for How much education should we pay for Can we buy knowledge about how to improve education Uniquely presenting a general overview of economic principles applicable to all sectors of education Paying for Education makes key economic ideas accessible to non economists whilst drawing on insights from other social science disciplines It examines the implications of its analysis especially for two important areas of policy paying for teachers and paying for teaching in higher education in order to highlight some underlying issues and consider alternative policy options as well as reflect on possible futures The chapters examine The value of education for the individual The value of education for society Private and public demands for education Choosing a system to supply education The cost efficiency and equity of providing education Analysing evidence and case studies on a global scale Paying for Education is an essential read for academics educational administrators policy makers leaders in educational organisations and all of those interested in the future of how we pay for education Exaggerated Claims?

David Walker, 2015-11-30 David Walker's analysis is incisive and hard hitting Anyone who believes in the power of social science to inform better policy making should take his criticisms seriously Sue Duncan Former Chief Government Social Researcher and Head of the Government Social Research Service David Walker has written an unofficial summary of ESRC's achievements and struggles He brings to the task long experience of the organisation and of the key players a great familiarity with the literature and a sceptical nature The result is stimulating instructive contentious and sometimes even infuriating David Rhind Chair of the Nuffield Foundation What is the role of the state in distributing research money How do arm's length funding agencies relate to public policy and business This original study looks at the main social science funding agency in the UK which was established 50 years ago It examines how funding decisions are related to power The critical and policy aspects of successful research bids are discussed Walker asks the tricky question why has social science research not achieved a more salient role in state policy formation and management strategy is the funding agency responsible Insightful engrossing and highly original the book will be required reading for anyone who has written or will write a Social Science research bid and more widely for students of power knowledge and culture
