Dominic Ignatius Ekandem 1917-1995 Michael I. Edem CM,2018-07-31 A phenomenon seldom recognized in the media of Western Europe and North America is the extraordinary growth of the Catholic Church of South America and sub-Saharan Africa during the last five decades and nowhere more than in Nigeria A key figure in that country and in that growth up to his death in 1995 was Cardinal Ekandem the first Anglophone West African bishop the first of many and an outstanding churchman of the 20th Century Fr Michael Edem's scholarly biography of the Cardinal is a fascinating account of a journey from life in a traditional African village to the consistory of cardinals of the Catholic Church in Rome It will be of enormous interest to a wider public for the author's personal knowledge of the cardinal and of the Efik-Ibibio culture in which they both grew up Evangelical Exodus Douglas Beaumont, 2016 Over the course a single decade dozens of students alumni and professors from a conservative Evangelical seminary in North Carolina Southern Evangelical Seminary converted to Catholicism These conversions were notable as they occurred among people with varied backgrounds and motivations many of whom did not share their thoughts with one another until this book was produced Even more striking is that the seminary's founder long time president and popular professor Dr Norman Geisler had written two full length books and several scholarly articles criticizing Catholicism from an Evangelical point of view What could have led these seminary students and even some of their professors to walk away from their Evangelical education and risk losing their jobs ministries and even family and friends to embrace the teachings they once rejected as false or even heretical Speculation over this phenomenon has been rampant and often dismissive and misguided leading to more confusion than understanding The stories of these converts are now being told by those who know them best the converts themselves They discuss the primary issues they had to face the nature of the biblical canon the identification of Christian orthodoxy and the problems with the Protestant doctrines of sola scriptura scripture alone and sola fide faith alone Coming Soon Michael Patrick Barber, 2005 Is there a book of the Bible more often discussed and yet less understood than the Book of Revelation The seven seals The dragon The beast The sea of glass The fantastic imagery found in the Book of Revelation has long captivated Christians but remains mysterious to many In the midst of so much discussion about the end times what does Revelation teach us about living in the present moment with our eyes focused on the heavenly Jerusalem Michael Barber's Coming Soon explores these questions by taking a detailed look at Revelation and its rich tapestry of prophecy history and biblical allusion Barber explores the profound link between the Mass celebrated here on earth and the eternal reality of heaven demonstrating that the Apocalypse reveals truth that has practical implications for today and points to a firm hope in tomorrow Coming Soon is a verse by verse commentary on the Book of Revelation using the Revised Standard Version Catholic Edition of the Bible Barber provides a Catholic interpretation which sees the liturgical background of this book of Scripture a perspective missing in many Protestant commentaries Lectio Divina as Contemplative Pedagogy Mary Keator, 2017-12-14 Offering an original application of the ancient monastic practice of lectio divina to the humanities this book demonstrates the need for further emphasis on deep reading reflection and contemplation in contemporary university classrooms Each chapter provides readers with an historical overview of the four movements of this monastic method lectio reading meditatio interpreting oratio responding and contemplatio experiencing wisdom and suggests ways to incorporate these practices in humanities courses Keator demonstrates that the lectio divina method is a viable pedagogical tool to guide students slowly and methodically through literary texts and into a subjective experience of wisdom and meaning Double Standard David F. Pierre, David F. Pierre, Jr., 2013-05-22 Yes Catholic priests terribly abused minors and bishops failed to stop the unspeakable harm That is an undeniable truth Nothing justifies such an evil However major media outlets are unfairly attacking the Catholic Church and this fast paced compelling book has the shocking evidence to prove it This book addresses numerous topics including appalling cases of abuse and cover ups happening today but they re not happening in the Catholic Church proof that Catholic clergy do not offend more than teachers or those of other religious denominations data that shows that the Catholic clergy scandal is not about pedophilia affirmation that the Catholic Church may be the safest environment for children today research that uncovers the shady relationships between SNAP Survivors Network of Those Abused by Priests lawyers and the media the alarming roots of SNAP s attacks on the Church the surprising truth about repressed memories unheard agonized priests who deny the accusations against them evidence of how the documentary Deliver Us From Evil deceived moviegoers plus much more Double Standard covers topics that the major media won t There is no other book about the Catholic Church abuse narrative like this one

Getting at Jesus Peter S. Williams, 2019-01-29 Portraying themselves as challenging blind religious dogma with evidence led skepticism the neo atheist movement claims that the New Testament contains unreliable tales about a mythical figure who far from being the resurrected Lord of life may not even have lived This comprehensive critique documents the falsehood of these neo atheist claims correcting their historical and philosophical mistakes to show how we can get at the truth about the historical Jesus

It: Identity Trespass Dr. Jacqueline DeLaney, 2016-01-30 Every human being has an innate call to be truly known as significant and loved by others God has created and set this longing within us to be known for who we are Knowing you is to know that your identity is in Jesus Christ because you were created in God s image An individual s lack of this knowledge can result in a sociopsychological identity crisis and role confusion as characterized by social psychologist Erik Erikson To know your identity is to know whose you are and how you came to be you Therefore much of our emotional pain turmoil and dysfunctions in our personal lives are predicated on not knowing our true identity Essentially we make an effort to behave according to our self concept and self esteem which are based on the versions of reactions we have received from others Consequently self esteem points toward the distinction between one s perceived self concept and with one s ideal self Our sense of worth is initially tremendously impacted during our early years because we develop a vision of ourselves through the expressions we received by the significant people during those early years Loving affirmations promote good self identity and being rejected can be the basis for a negative self image later in life Due to such unprocessed emotionally trauma from our early years many of us experience deficits in core longings Also these unprocessed emotional wounds impact our relationships with God self and others Consequently we need the aid of a structure that promotes the truth of God esteem and to position us for emotional healing that positively impact our identity in Christ This book presents elements of a spiritual formational approach which incorporates the knowledge of core longings self fulfilling behaviors and emotional wounds into a personal healing structure that impacts our Christian identity

Christian Charismatic Movements Andrzej Siemieniewski, Mirosław Kiwka, 2021-10-11 The New Testament shows the early Church as having both stable institutions and dynamic growth in charismatic ministries In the twenty first century although many historically determined inessentials have changed the Church s structure remains fundamentally the same This study looks at New Testament ministries Eph 4 11 12 Baptism in the Holy Spirit and the history of the gift of tongues from the Acts of the Apostles through to the charismatics of our time to see how these elements contribute to the fast paced global phenomenon we call the pentecostalization of modern Christianity Our research shows that much of what appears to be novel in current ecclesial movements is the fruit of charisms that have been poured out from the beginning The disciples of Christ are still bringing out of his treasure what is new and old

Eight Ways of Loving God Jeanette Flood, 2019-05-20 There is growing awareness that different people have different love languages What about God Does He have a love language Jeanette Flood answers this question by looking at the life and teachings of Jesus With a conversational style and a dose of good humor she describes eight love languages with fresh spiritual analogies and lessons from her own life This work reveals that being a Christian means being in a relationship of love with Love Himself Drawing on Scripture Church teachings and insights of the saints it inspires readers to follow Saint Paul s advice to the Ephesians to learn what is pleasing to the Lord Eph 5 10
