Arbuckle, 2010-09-01 The split between the Gospel and culture is without doubt the drama of our time wrote Paul VI in 1975 Since that time there has been an increasingly urgent awareness that inculturation is an indispensable task of the church But inculturation the dialogue between church and cultures demands first of all that we who would enter into the dialogue understand what culture itself means and what dialogue entails To that end cultural anthropologist Father Gerald Arbuckle gives us this important volume He traces the history of the development of the concept of culture and the too often negative rarely positive effects of encounters between church and culture He explores how Jesus Christ approached the cultures of his time and outlines the current treatment of culture and inculturation in church documents and in Catholic theology He shows that modest progress in understanding has recently staled and there are even forces working to turn that progress into regress He concludes with a description of inculturation as it needs to happen and a sharp critique of those who resist With a sense of prophetic hope Arbuckle seeks to help us bridge the lamentable split between Gospel and culture the drama that continues to unfold in our time Race, Gender, Sexuality, and Social Class Susan J. Ferguson, 2023-06-08 Race Gender Sexuality and Social Class Fourth Edition is an anthology of readings that explores the ways these social statuses shape our experiences and impact our life chances in society today Organized around broad topics identity power and privilege social institutions etc rather than categories of difference race gender class sexuality to underscore the idea that social statuses often intersect with one another to produce inequalities and form the bases of our identities in society The text features readings by leading experts in the field and reflects the many approaches scholars and researchers use to understand issues of diversity power and privilege Included with this title LMS Cartridge Import this title s instructor resources into your school s learning management system LMS and save time Don t use an LMS You can still access all of the same online resources for this title via the password protected Instructor Resource Site of the groups featured in the volume include Chinese Latino Lebanese Jewish Filipino South Asian and Vietnamese communities The book also examines Biloxi as a city that has long attracted a diverse population and takes a look at the growth in identity affiliation among people of European descent The book is funded in part by a We the People grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities

Resisting Gendered Norms Mona Lilja, 2016-04-08 Political scientists have on occasion missed subtle but powerful forms of everyday resistance and have not been able to show how different representations pictures statements images practices have different impacts when negotiating power Instead they have concentrated on open forms of resistance organized rebellions and collective actions Departing from James Scott's idea that oppression and resistance are in constant change Resisting Gendered Norms provides us with a compelling account on the nexus between gender resistance and gender based violence in Cambodia To illustrate how resistance is often carried out in the tension between on the one hand universal globalised representations and on the other local truths and identity constructions in depth interviews with civil society representatives politicians as well as stakeholders within the legal juridical system were conducted

Power, Resistance and Women Politicians in Cambodia Mona Lilja, 2008 In a world where there are few women politicians Cambodia is still noticeable as a country where strong cultural and societal forces act to subjugate women and limit their political opportunities However in their everyday life Cambodian women do try to improve their situation and increase their political power not least via manifold strategies of resistance This book focuses on Cambodian female politicians and the strategies they deploy in their attempts to destabilize the cultural boundaries and hierarchies that restrain them In particular the book focuses on how women use discourses and identities as means of resistance a concept only recently of wide interest among scholars studying power The value of this book is thus twofold not only does it give a unique insight into the political struggles of Cambodian women but also offers new insights to studies of power

Singing in the Fire Linda Martín Alcoff, 2003-10-14 Ask most people to imagine a philosopher and they probably think of someone like Socrates absent minded perhaps but with a sharp intellect and a thirst for the truth A woman juggling car pools and housework is not the first image that springs to mind but women have taken huge steps in the philosophy profession over the past 50 years Still to this day well established women philosophers continue to face sexism from colleagues and students Singing in the Fire is a unique groundbreaking collection of autobiographical essays by leading women in philosophy It mines the experience of the generation that witnessed and helped create the remarkable advances now evident for women in the field These women are leaders and innovators looking back on how they have been treated how they might have done things differently and how we might make progress in future generations

Africa and International Relations in the 21st Century S. Cornelissen, F. Cheru, T. Shaw, 2016-01-26 This book examines key emergent trends related to aspects of power sovereignty conflict peace development and changing social dynamics in the African context It challenges conventional IR precepts of authority politics and society which have proven to be so inadequate in explaining African processes Rather this edited collection analyses the significance of many of the uncharted dimensions of Africa's international relations such as the respatialisation of African societies through migration and the impacts this process has had on state power the various ways in which both formal and informal authority and economies are practised and the dynamics and impacts of new transnational social movements on African politics Finally attention is paid to Africa's place in a shifting global order and the implications for African international relations of the emergence of new world powers and or alliances This edition includes a new preface by the editors which brings the findings of the book up to date and analyses the changes that are likely to impact upon global governance and human development in policy and practice in Africa and the wider world post 2015

Peace and Security Elizabeth Porter, Anuradha Mundkur, 2012 Offering a broad overview of what is being done in conflict affected countries to advance women's participation in peace processes peace building and decision making this record examines the implementation of UN Security Council Resolution 1325 on Women Peace and Security and presents evidence based case studies from East Timor Fiji and Sri Lanka As it explores ways to protect women and girls from violence it suggests key actions that should be taken by development agencies women's nongovernmental organizations and policymakers The book focuses on the following fundamental aspects a specifically feminist methodology a priority on gender equality and women's empowerment and the broad notions of human security and peace building
