The Faith and Friendships of Teenage Boys Robert C. Dykstra, Allan Hugh Cole Jr., Donald Capps, 2012-09-13 Drawing on research and case studies three pastoral care experts argue that one of the primary contexts in which the faith formation of teenage boys takes place is in their relationships with other adolescent males Written by the authors of Losers Loners and Rebels The Spiritual Struggles of Boys this book is an important resource for anyone interested in helping adolescent males navigate years often marked by isolation and loneliness to develop a meaningful spiritual identity

Discussions on Ego Identity Jane Kroger, 2014-09-19 Identity has been a topical issue in both popular and social science literatures for the past forty years The writings of Erik Erikson on the identity formation process of late adolescence have provided an important theoretical foundation to clinical counseling and educational practices As the literature on adolescent development has burgeoned over the last three decades so have efforts to understand more systematically the means by which young people find their occupational religious political sexual and relational roles in life One of the most popular research traditions to spring from Erikson's clinical observations has been the ego identity status approach developed by James Marcia This approach has expanded Erikson's concept of identity to describe four distinct styles by which adolescents and adults deal with identity defining issues The present volume reflects the most recent efforts of social scientists who have contributed further to the work that Erikson and Marcia began an exhaustive analysis of the issues inherent in the adolescent identity formation process
