Aesthetic Afterlives Andrew Eastham, 2011-10-06 Since the development of British Aestheticism in the 1870s the concept of irony has focused a series of anxieties which are integral to modern literary practice Examining some of the most important debates in post Romantic aesthetics through highly focused textual readings of authors from Walter Pater and Henry James to Samuel Beckett and Alan Hollinghurst this study investigates the dialectical position of irony in Aestheticism and its twentieth century afterlives Aesthetic Afterlives constructs a far reaching theoretical narrative by positioning Victorian Aestheticism as the basis of Literary Modernity Aestheticism s cultivation of irony and reflexive detachment was central to this legacy but it was also the focus of its own self critique Anxieties about the concept and practice of irony persisted through Modernism and have recently been positioned in Hollinghurst s work as a symptom of the political stasis within post modern culture Referring to the recent debates about the new aestheticism and the politics of aesthetics Eastham asks how a utopian Aestheticism can be reconstructed from the problematics of irony and aesthetic autonomy that haunted writers from Pater to Adorno

Literary Theory: A Complete Introduction Sara Upstone, 2017-05-04 Literary theory has now become integral to how we produce literary criticism When critics write about a text they no longer think just about the biographical or historical contexts of the work but also about the different approaches that literary theory offers By making use of these they create new interpretations of the text that would not otherwise be possible In your own reading and writing literary theory fosters new avenues into the text It allows you to make informed comments about the language and form of literature but also about the core themes concepts such as gender sexuality the self race and class which a text might explore Literary theory gives you an almost limitless number of texts to work into your own response ensuring that your interpretation is truly original This is why although literary theory can initially appear alienating and difficult it is something to get really excited about Imagine you are standing in the centre of a circular room with a whole set of doors laid out around you Each doorway opens on to a new and illuminating field of knowledge that can change how you think about what you have read perhaps in just a small way but also perhaps dramatically and irrevocably You can open one door or many of them The choice is yours Put the knowledge you gain together with your own interpretation however and you have a unique and potentially fascinating response Each chapter in Literary Theory A Complete Introduction covers a key school of thought progressing to a point at which you'll have a full understanding of the range of responses and approaches available for textual interpretation As well as focusing on such core areas as Marxism Modernism Postmodernism Structuralism and Poststructuralism this introduction brings in recent developments such as Eco and Ethical Criticism and Humanisms

A Poetics of Postmodernism and Neomodernism M. Latham, 2015-05-27 This new book examines how a range of authors today perpetuate Virginia Woolf's literary legacy by creating new forms adapted to their new ages and audiences Addressing questions about the current penchant for refashioning our canon in order to update this book will be valuable reading for both students and scholars of Woolf

Rethinking Race and Identity in Contemporary British Fiction Sara Upstone, 2016-10-04 This book takes a post racial approach to the representation of race in contemporary British fiction re imagining studies of race and British literature away from concerns with specific racial groups towards a more sophisticated analysis of the contribution of a broad post racial British writing Examining the work of writers from a wide range of diverse racial backgrounds the book illustrates how contemporary British fiction rather than merely reflecting social norms is making a radical contribution towards the possible future of a positively multi ethnic and post racial Britain This is developed by a strategic use of the realist form which becomes a utopian device as it provides readers with a reality beyond current circumstances yet one which is rooted within an identifiable world Speaking to the specific contexts of British cultural politics and directly connecting with contemporary debates surrounding race and identity in Britain the author engages with a wide range of both mainstream and neglected authors including Ian McEwan Zadie Smith Julian Barnes John Lanchester Alan Hollinghurst Martin Amis Jon McGregor Andrea Levy Bernardine Evaristo Hanif Kureishi Kazuo Ishiguro Hari Kunzru Nadeem Aslam Meera Syal Jackie Kay Maggie Gee and Neil Gaiman This cutting edge volume explores how contemporary fiction is at the centre of re thinking how we engage with the question of race in twenty first century Britain Twenty-first-century fiction Daniel Lea,2016-11-21 This book offers readings of five of the most interesting and original voices to have emerged in Britain since the millennium as they tackle the challenges of portraying the new century Through close readings of the work of Ali Smith Andrew O Hagan Tom McCarthy Sarah Hall and Jon McGregor Daniel Lea opens a window onto the formal and thematic concerns that characterise a literary landscape troubled by both familiar and unfamiliar predicaments These include questions about the meaning of humanness in an age of digital intercourse about the need for a return to authenticity in the wake of postmodernism and about the dislocation of self from the other under neoliberal individualism By relating its readings of these authors to the wider shifts in contemporary literary criticism this book offers in depth analysis of important landmarks of recent fiction and an introduction to the challenges of understanding the literature of our time The Wounded Hero in Contemporary Fiction Susana Onega,Jean-Michel Ganteau,2018-04-27 The Wounded Hero in Contemporary Fiction tracks the emergence of a new type of physically and or spiritually wounded hero ine in contemporary fiction Editors Susana Onega and Jean Michel Ganteu bring together some of the top minds in the field to explore the paradoxical lives of these heroes that have embraced rather than overcome their suffering alienation and marginalisation as a form of self definition
