Informal Economies and Power Anna Danielsson, 2018-10-26 The global ubiquity of informal economic activities has turned informality into a key policy question not least in international peace and state building This book explores a core aspect of economic informality its resilience despite comprehensive international anti informality operations Using Kosovo as an illustrative case Danielsson suggests that to understand the resilience of informality two distinct areas of practice need to be studied in conjunction rather than separately The first concerns the professional practices enacted by international organisations in their attempts to formalise the informal economy in Kosovo The second area of practice concerns the everyday informal economic practices of social agents in Kosovo To study these areas of practice at their junction Danielsson uses Pierre Bourdieu's concept of symbolic power and argues that in post conflict Kosovo the distinct practices have become interwoven and co constitutive of a novel ordering and meaning of informality The resilience of the informal thus plays out through while undermining and reinforcing the need of the international anti informality operations Including scholarship from global governance global political economy and social theory this book's original perspective on informal economies and power will appeal to scholars and professionals located in peace studies development studies and the field of international relations

Donors, technical assistance and public administration in Kosovo Mary Venner, 2016-09-01 This book looks beyond the apparently united and generally self congratulatory statements of The United Nations other major multinational organisations and many large bilateral aid donors to examine what actually happened when they tried to work together in restoring stability and establishing governance in the territory

Local Ownership in International Peacebuilding Sung Yong Lee, Alpaslan Özerdem, 2015-04-24 comprehensively examines the theoretical and practical dimensions of local ownership in international peacebuilding uses nine case studies from different countries to explore the topic empirically will be of much interest to students of peacebuilding war and conflict studies development studies global governance security studies and IR

The EU as a State-builder in International Affairs Labinot Greiçevci, 2021-11-04 This book presents a systematic in depth and comparative analysis of the role of the EU in the process of international state building and is one of the first comprehensive books to do so at an international level Taking the case of Kosovo it examines the EU's role in the birth of a state in comparison to other international actors from 1999 to 2008 and moves on to analyse the EU's role in norm

diffusion in the post independence period 2008 2020 Throughout the book the author draws parallel analyses with broader debates and scholarly literature regarding the EU s role as a state builder or norm diffuser Combining a liberal peace thesis framework with the normative power Europe NPE approach it analyses how successful the EU and other international actors were in the diffusion of tangible and normative impacts in the process of state building in Kosovo 1999 2008 along with the EU s diffusion of normative impact from 2008 to 2020 Finally it scrutinises the role of the EU and other international actors in the processes of state building through transference tools funding and overt tools political role This book will be of key interest to scholars and students of EU foreign policy European politics peace and conflict studies the Western Balkans state building international organisations and more broadly to international relations Banking in Central and Eastern Europe 1980-2006 Stephan Barisitz,2007-08-09 Chapter 1 Introduction chapter 2 Banks and their role in a modern market oriented economy chapter 3 Banking under socialism chapter 4 Transition liberalization banking crises and reform policies up to around 2000 chapter 5 Post transition crisis developments strengths and weaknesses of contemporary banking sectors since around 2000 chapter 6 Perspectives of banking in Central and Eastern Europe Rebuilding War-Torn States Graciana del Castillo,2008-09-25 With public attention increasingly focused on efforts to reconstruct war torn countries like Iraq and Afghanistan this book looks at the unique set of challenges faced by such countries in the transition to peace Strategies to promote peace building state building and economic reconstruction are discussed alongside real world examples The Beginner's Guide to Nation-building James Dobbins,2007 Since the end of the Cold War the United States NATO the United Nations and a range of other states and nongovernmental organizations have become increasingly involved in nation building operations This volume presents a comprehensive history of best practices in nation building and serves as an indispensable reference for planning future interventions State Building and Development Arta Ante,2010 In the case of Kosovo in addition to the examination of the structures this study examines the role of actors participating in these processes local and international actors and their potential alliances coalitions and conflicts Beyond these concerns the aspect of security especially the rule of law is to be considered as the main precondition for undertaking any action in the aforementioned domains From the theoretical methodical perspective this work falls under the category of Policy Analysis

European Economic Integration and South-East Europe Klaus Liebscher,2005-01-01 Offers a collection of contributions combining authoritative views of central bank officials and policymakers topical empirical evidence from academia and refreshing practical insights from companies doing business in the area This book will be useful to economists as well as those generally interested in the future of the EU The Legal Status of Territories Subject to Administration by International Organisations Bernhard Knoll,2008-06-12 The international community s practice of administering territories in post conflict environments has raised important legal questions Using Kosovo as a case study Bernhard Knoll analyses the identity of the administering UN organ the ways in which the territories under consideration have acquired partial subjectivity in international law and the nature of legal obligations in the fiduciary exercise of transitional administration developed within the League of Nations Mandate and the UN Trusteeship systems Knoll discusses Kosovo's internal political and constitutional order and notes the absence of some of the characteristics normally found in liberal democracies before proposing that the UN consolidates accountability guidelines related to the protection of human rights and the development of democratic standards should it engage in the transitional administration of territory

Building a peace economy? Jenny H. Peterson, 2015-11-01 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license This book critically examines the range of policies and programmes that attempt to manage economic activity that contributes to political violence It offers a new framework for understanding both the problem of economic activity in conflict zones as well as programmes aimed at managing these and transforming them into more peaceful economic and political relationships Through this examination both the problems of liberal modes of peacebuilding implemented by the development security industry and opportunities for policy innovation are explored Useful charts and frameworks throughout the book provide the reader with a range of analytical tools that can be easily used to explore war economies and related policies in a range of contexts making this book an essential read for students policy makers and aid practitioners working in a range of disciplines and conflict affected areas

Positive Peace in Kosovo

Elisabeth Schleicher, 2012 Kosovo today more than eleven years after the war is still a fragile and unfinished state enjoying only limited sovereignty while continuing to be divided into a Serb north and an Albanian dominated south All the important dimensions of society in Kosovo remain critical and highly unstable While the security situation in the country except the North has considerably improved the living conditions of the Kosovar population are still in a dismal state Corruption and organized crime continue to block the development of a viable state an efficient bureaucracy and a democratic political culture This book systematically analyzes and describes the relevant developments in Kosovar society since the end of the war and investigates how successfully peace has been established in Kosovo

Minorías y fronteras en el mediterráneo ampliado. Un desafío a la seguridad internacional del siglo XXI Algora

Weber, María Dolores, 2015 La situación actual del Mediterráneo Ampliado pone de relieve la necesidad de abordar con urgencia el tema de las minorías y su impacto sobre las fronteras En relación con ello los sucesos acontecidos desde la disolución de la antigua Yugoslavia hasta los conflictos derivados de las revueltas árabes en Oriente Próximo y Magreb se han traducido en cambios especialmente sensibles en la región mediterránea Los Estados nacen se van transformando en multiculturales y evolucionan hacia un nuevo modelo de sociedad que requiere estabilidad Por otro lado Estados que ya se definen como multiculturales se enfrentan a posibles descomposiciones territoriales en un contexto de conflictos en que se diluyen los elementos de cohesión que ejercieron su función tras la descolonización hasta las últimas décadas del siglo pasado

Estas circunstancias que han afectado a los paradigmas sustanciales del orden internacional desde el final de la Guerra Fría hasta el presente han sido abordadas en clave histórica en esta monografía a la vez que se plantean reflexiones sobre las respuestas que permitan hacer frente a este desafío a la seguridad internacional del siglo XXI

Republic of Kosovo International Monetary Fund. European Dept., 2013-07-23 This staff report on the Republic of Kosovo's 2013 Article IV Consultation focuses on economic and financial developments Kosovo's economy is excessively dependent on inflows from the diaspora It is found that while these inflows support incomes they finance primarily consumption and investments in nontradables such as real estate or services and contribute little to the build up of productive capacity Goods exports are less than 10 percent of GDP and concentrated in sectors with a low value added component notably metals A coherent strategy is needed to improve competitiveness foster the development of a tradable sector and lay the basis for self sustained growth
